OUR DAWNING

Sophomores Have "Good Potential"

One of the sophomore's main goals was to earn money; they accomplished this by having paper drives and holding a slave sale.

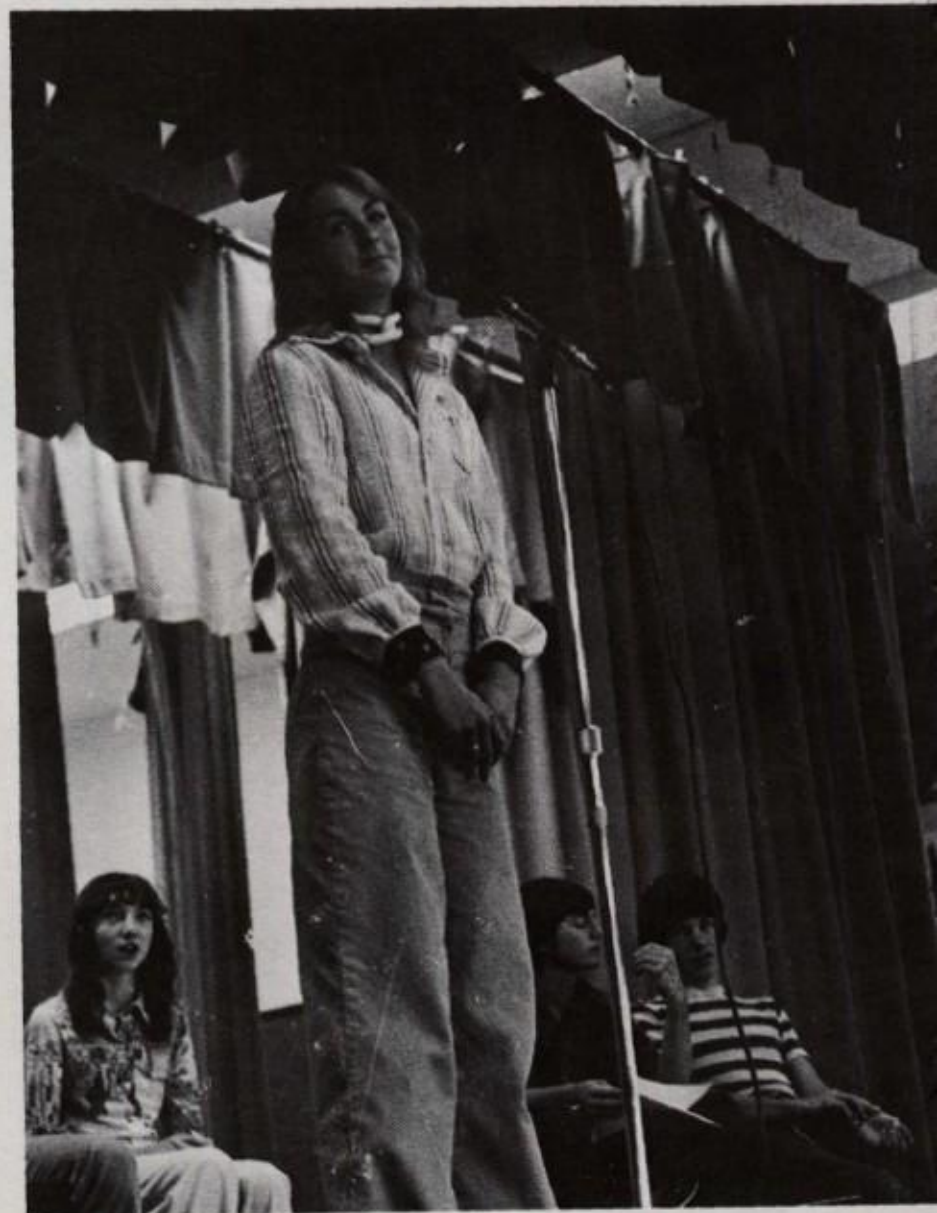

During Red and Grey Days, sophomores scored only one point. Cindy Fidler won the point for her class by eating some jello faster than others. Class of '79 won six points during Spirit Week.

When asked what sophomores thought of Guide Group, most of them agreed that it was boring, but helped to a certain extent.

President Teresa Bush summed it up well by stating: "We may not have accomplished as much as we would have liked but we learned a lot from our experiences. I really had fun working with the people in my class. The Class of '79 has good potential and will prove it in years to come."

Rebel Runners Become Known

Cross Country Girls Learn To Improve

"I feel that the South girls' team played as intensely as any other athletic teams," says Girls' Cross Country Coach Mike McClendon.

The small team primarily consisted of young girls who were inexperienced to the sport of Cross Country. So the main tasks were "conditioning, pioneering a new girls sport at South, establishing a foundation for future seasons, and mostly, enjoying themselves."

The team was not without its humorous moments. During one race, Peggy Guyer lost a contact. She tried to continue, but kept bumping into trees. Betsy Grimes, in her second race, sprained her ankle. Thinking it was just a simple sprain, the coaches sent her home, only to come to school the next day with crutches. Steph Haslam, a latecomer to Cross Country, was unable to finish the District Race due to the bruises and a battered body sustained from the "gentle sport known as Powerpuff Football."

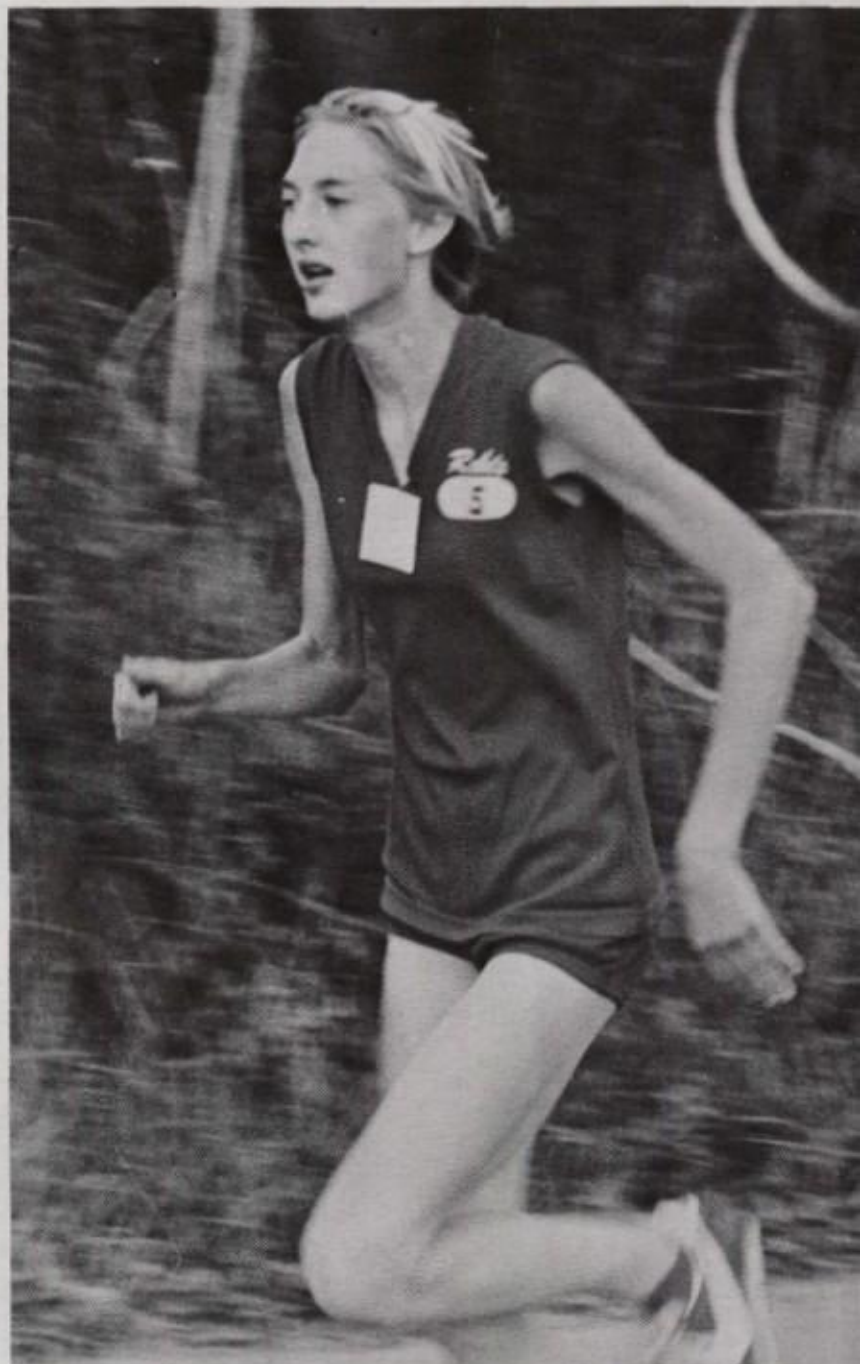

Attitude of the girls improved throughout the season. "They learned that girl athletes are feminine first, athletic second, and that a very gentle approach to training is required."

"Hopefully we'll have a much larger turnout. The word should spread that cross country is kind of different, but kind of fun."

The 1976-77 Rebel Runners have made a name for themselves in Cross Country.

Although the team did not win a meet all season, they ran hard at all meets, doing their best at District. Gary Killgore, a junior, placed third in District competition at Bush Park in Salem. Killgore was voted "Most Valuable" by his teammates.

Kerwin Koos, also a junior, placed tenth in District and was voted "Most Improved."

The Senior side of the team had its share of bad luck with Brian Birky and Randy Shadley out with injuries.

The fact that the team is young makes a good outlook for the 77-78 Cross Country Season.

"The outlook for next year is very good with many returning lettermen. Our best meet was at Hudson's Bay."

Rebel Gymnasts

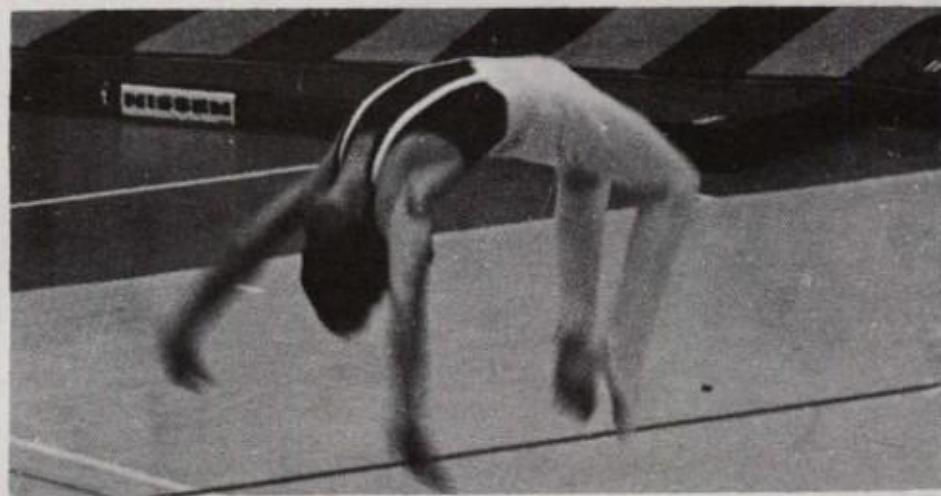

Roll To Success

"My philosophies and ideas about technique differed greatly from those of the previous coach" Lary stated. This showed up because it took a good share of the season for the team to adjust to their new coach.

Five of the eight gymnasts competing were sophomores, which added a lot of inexperience to the team. A lot of injuries on top of the inexperience made it worse.

Sophomore Mark Haven, number two all-around, broke his leg just before the South Eugene meet. Senior Tim Adams, number one all-around, suffered a back strain early in the state meet which forced him to withdraw from competition. When asked how the state meet went, Tim replied saying, "It didn't go at all for me."

Coach Lary described the season by saying, "It was a successful season which could have been more successful with a little more work."

Female Gymnasts Cope With Inexperience

"A lack of experience was a characteristic of the girls gymnastics team", both in coaching and among the girls themselves. This was Mrs. Betty Rondeau's first coaching job; there were only two seniors competing: Shelley Emmett and Diane Covey. Both were all-arounders. "It was a learning experience for most of the team members", stated Rondeau.

According to Coach Rondeau all of the girls worked very hard. Everyone got to compete which made the hard work worth it.

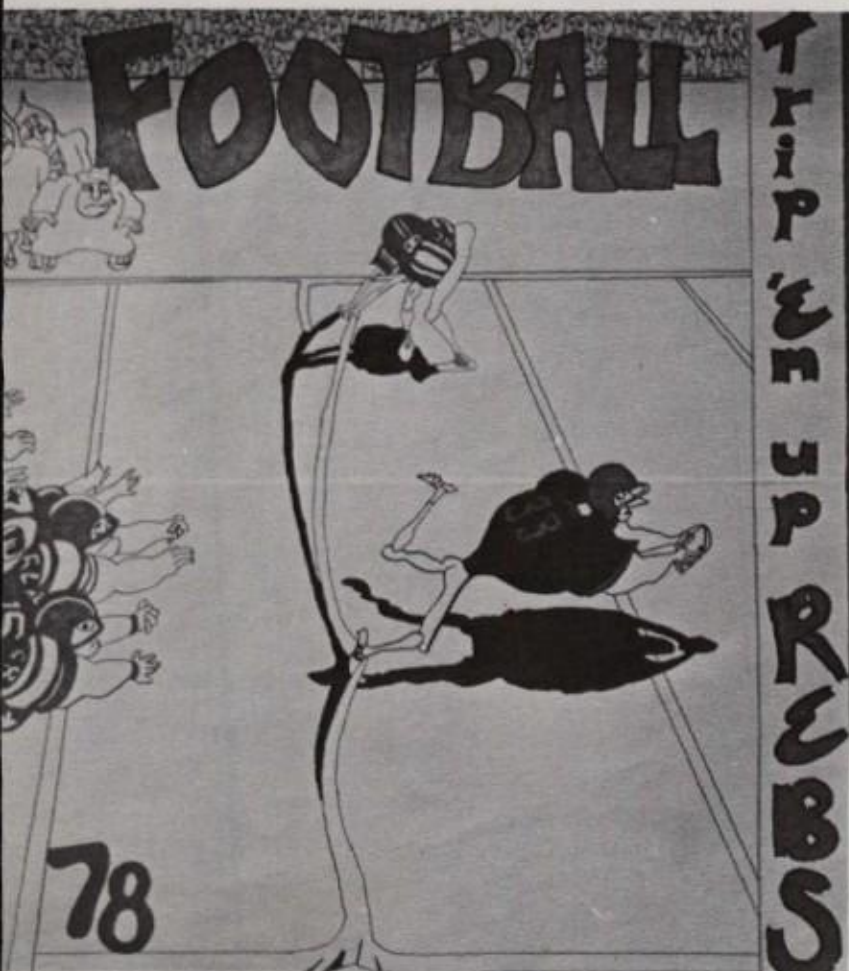

"One of the disappointing things about the season was the inconsistency of scoring. It was very discouraging to the girls to know that they were improving but not have it show up in their scores", said Rondeau.

Red and Grey Days started off on the right foot with a mismatch shoes and socks contest. Also that day Homecoming Court was announced. The rest of the week was filled with various activities such as the jello eating contest, hat day, record roll, and Red and Grey clothes.

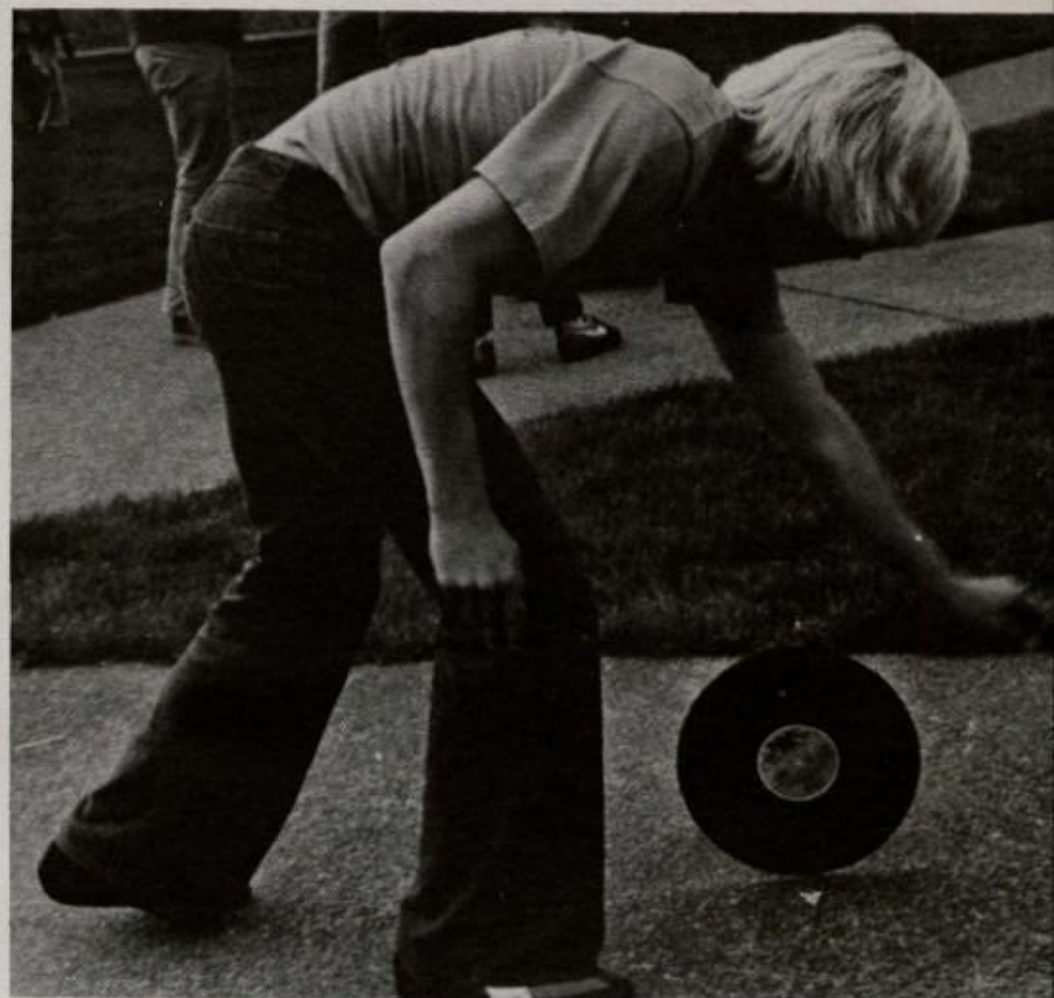

South added a new tradition to Homecoming with Powder Puff Football. The senior girls took on the junior girls with the outcome 2-0 in favor of the Class of '77.

At the Friday assembly the Court was escorted by their fathers or an adult friend; Queen Tammy Simmons was crowned to reign over South's fifth Homecoming.

During Friday Noon Live, MC'ed by DJ Gilham, students found out the results of the spirit points for the week: Juniors took over the week with eight points, the Seniors were close behind with five. Sophomores finished with only one.

A Saturday night Homecoming dance concluded the week, the first ever held on a Saturday.

Chairman Sue Elshire headed the week. Her reply as to the outcome: "It was a really good week and I want to thank everyone who helped make it turn out."

Baaske Leads Team

Having only a week of practice before the first game, showed up in the end result with a season record of 3 wins-13 losses.

"Our most exciting game was with Lebanon. They were a better team and we played to the best of our potential," stated Coach Steve Gremmel, "even though we did lose to them."

The South Albany Spikers improved from last year in all aspects of the game with the exception of serving. "They were a short team so played a better defense than offense," said Coach Gremmel.

At the Awards Assembly, the Judy Bassett Memorial Award, in honor of the most inspirational player, went to Senior Sue Hanson. The most valuable player award, voted by the team, went to Junior Wendy Baaske.

"It was a good year but very disappointing 'cause we lost the close games," stated Wendy Baaske. She filled in as captain of the team for Senior Teri Robertson after Teri broke her thumb.

"As a whole, the team improved. They played as well as they could in the game situation."

—Coach Steve Gremmel

Spikers Defeat West Albany

South Albany's Junior Varsity Volleyball team started out the 1976-77 year with a new coach, Janet Thompson, and ended with lots of improvement and experience.

Starting from scratch, Janet Thompson led the South Albany Junior Varsity Volleyball team to a 4-12 record. Their wins included one over South Salem, one over Lebanon and two wins over West Albany.

Captain Gail Winden summed up the season by saying: "Our team really tried and at the same time had lots of fun."

Thespians

"Wait Until Dark"

South Albany's fall play was shown November 18, 19, and 20. "Wait Until Dark" was a successful suspense drama, one of the first for South Albany.

The play centered around a toy doll, stuffed with heroin, which comes up missing, setting the whole play in motion. The action took place in a basement apartment in Greenwich Village.

The main character in the play was Suzy Hendrix, played by Linda Sonne, a blind and supposedly vulnerable young woman. Then there is Mike Talman, played by Gary Stroud, a pleasant, small time conman, and his co-worker, Sergeant Carlino, played by Ted Harrison. The Sergeant acts like he could kill anyone.

There is Harry Roat, played by Steve Averman, a very mean and evil man who likes to put fear into other people. He tries to scare the whereabouts of the toy doll out of Suzy. But Suzy has never seen the doll. As Steve Averman put it, "I think it was good; it demanded more acting ability. It was new and different."

CLOCKWISE: Harry Roat (Steve Averman) tries to get Suzy Hendrix (Linda Sonne) to tell him where the Toy doll is. Gloria (Ruby Jonsrud) helps Suzy with the reassurance that everything will be alright.

J.V. Football: Winning Isn't Everything

"We played better than our record shows," Junior Varsity Coach Terry Leininger stated. The young Rebels fought hard for a four win - five loss record.

Defense gave up quite a few points as a result of using a two platoon system. But this gave everyone a chance to play. Assistant coach Larry Lockett boasted "The line did a good job. They will fill in the Varsity spots next year very well."

Coach Leininger said: "It was a very fun year and if we could have avoided injuries the last part of the season we might have won a few more games."

"This is the most enjoyable year I have had coaching at South Albany".

—Coach Figoni

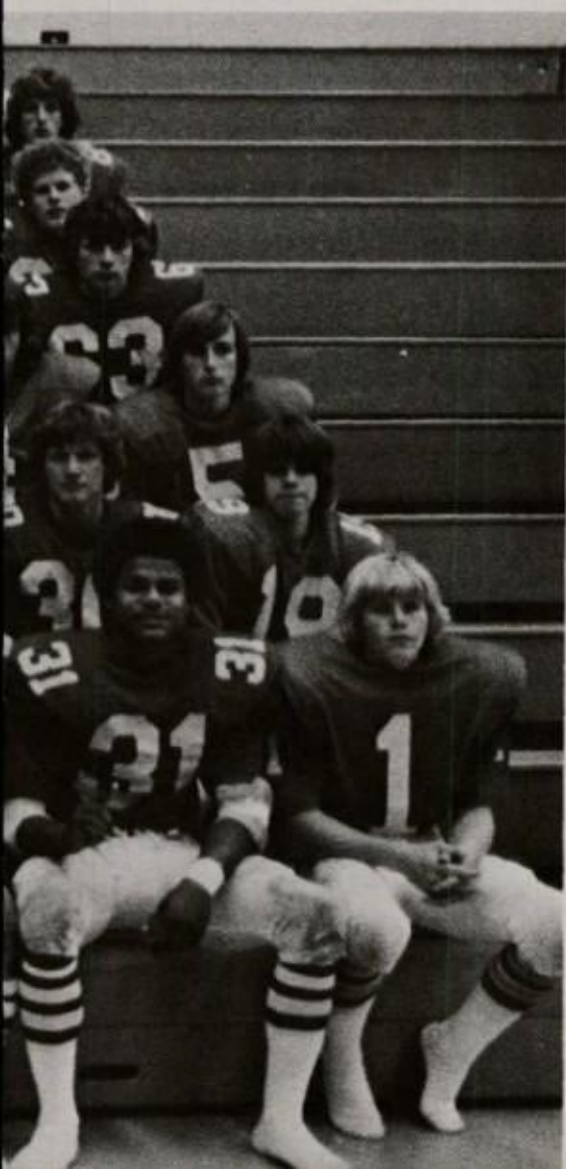

Gridders Shatter 16 Records

"The South Albany Football Team had its best season in the school's history," according to Coach Jim Figoni. The South Offense, led by Kraig Luther, Nick Westerberg, Alan Stryker and Wade Starbuck, scored the most points and generated the most total offense ever. The Defense, led by Burth Creighton, George Hosier, Darren Marsh, and Nick Westerberg, held their opponents to the least points ever scored against a Rebel team. According to Figoni, this was attributed to better discipline and more team unity.

High points in the season were victories over cross town West Albany, a strong win over undefeated Jackson of Portland, and a rout of South Salem, previously ranked second in the State. There were sixteen school records broken, mostly by Luther, Stryker and Starbuck.

Many juniors got good experience, but were overshadowed by the seniors. Offensive standouts were Tim Rediger and Richard King. On defense, Harold Orsborn, and Roger Lien showed good ability.

South Welcomes Durham

The 1976-77 school year started off with a new main man, Mr. Eldon Durham. He came to South after 16 years at Phoenix High School in Southern Oregon. He worked seven years as a coach-teacher and nine years as principal.

With Mr. Durham, came new ideas and approaches to better communications. "You have to be involved in the problems at the grass roots level to understand, and I want to know what the kids are thinking," stated Mr. Durham. He put these ideas into practice by advising the Student Congress, observing classes in action, and even taking over for teachers on occasion.

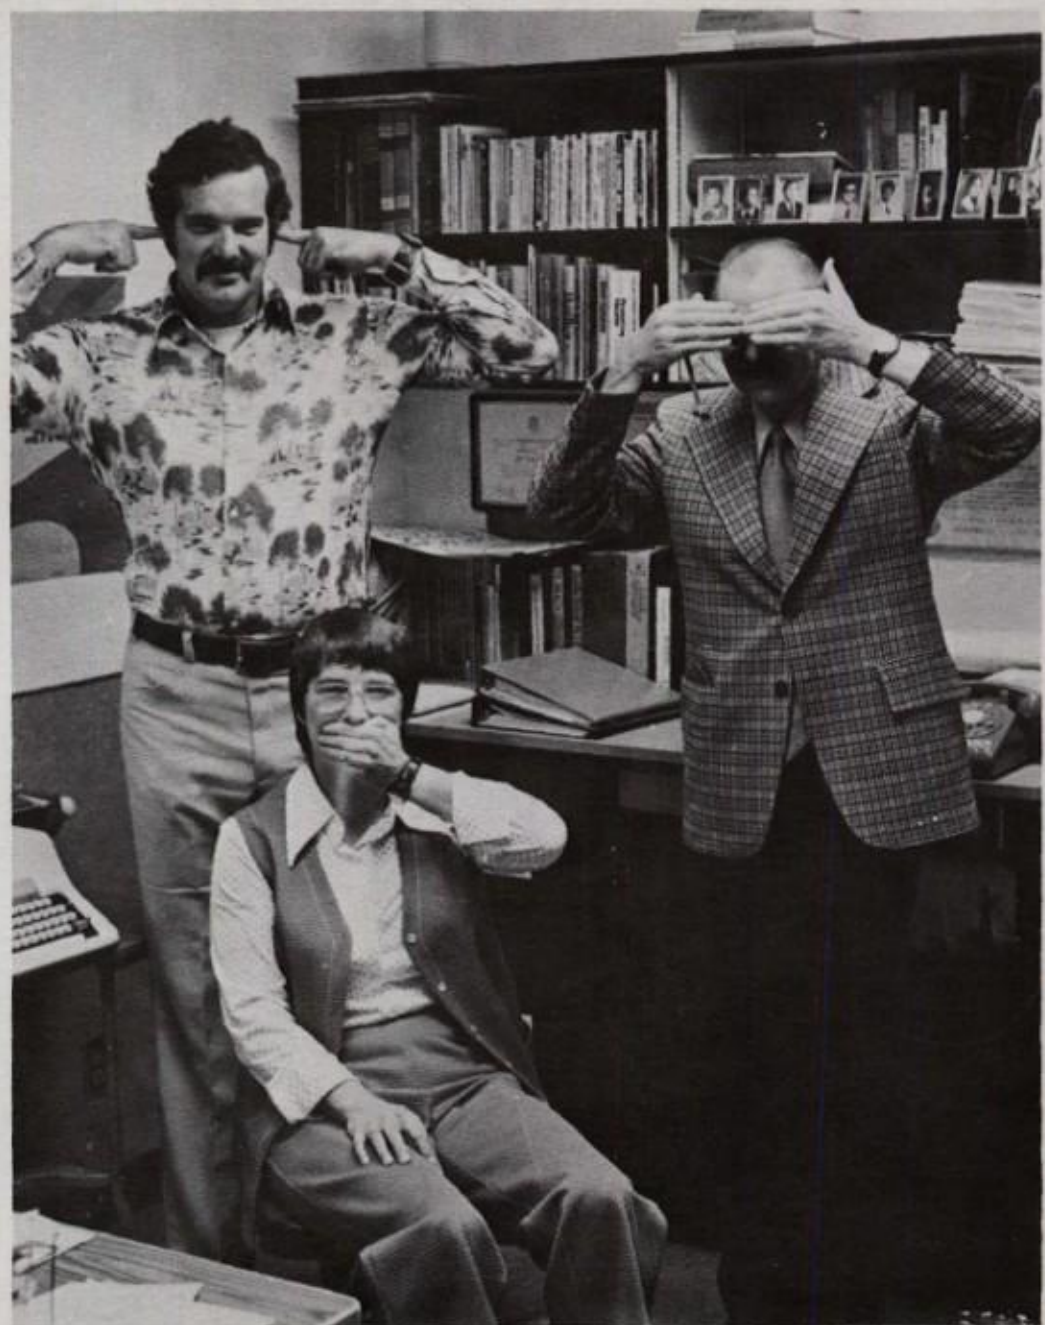

These changes were noticed by the students. Donna Barrett observed: "He talks to the teachers and gives his opinions and advice."

"Mr. Durham has brought a lot of discipline by cracking down on skipping," commented Tony Lemerande.

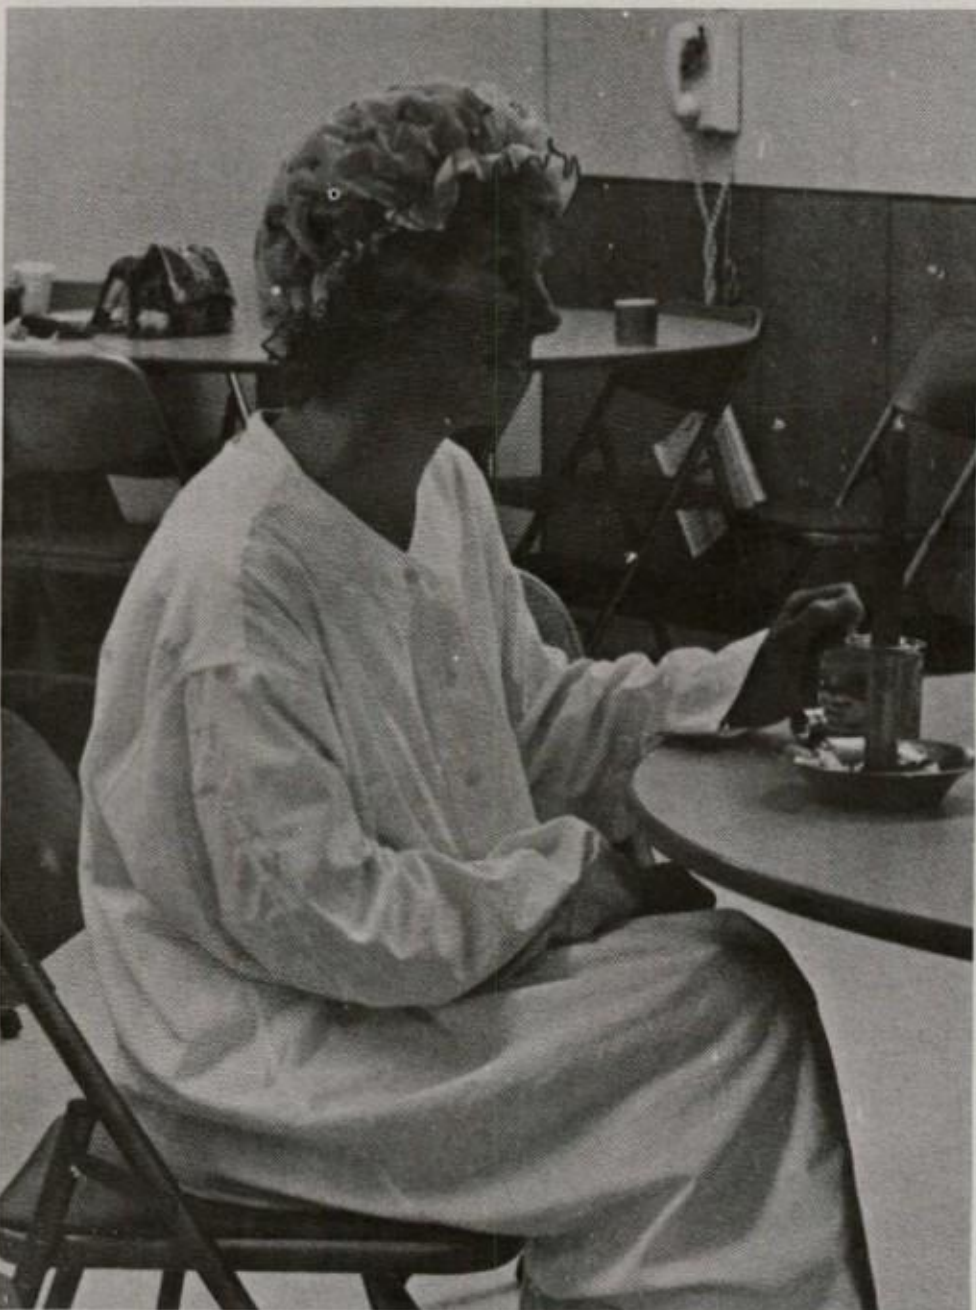

CLOCKWISE: Mr. Durham marvels at Irene DeRemer's skill at running the office machines; she is his secretary. Mr. Durham relaxes while observing Ms. Johnson's French class. Looking up from his work, Mr. Durham smiles from behind his desk in his office.

THE CIRCLE GAME

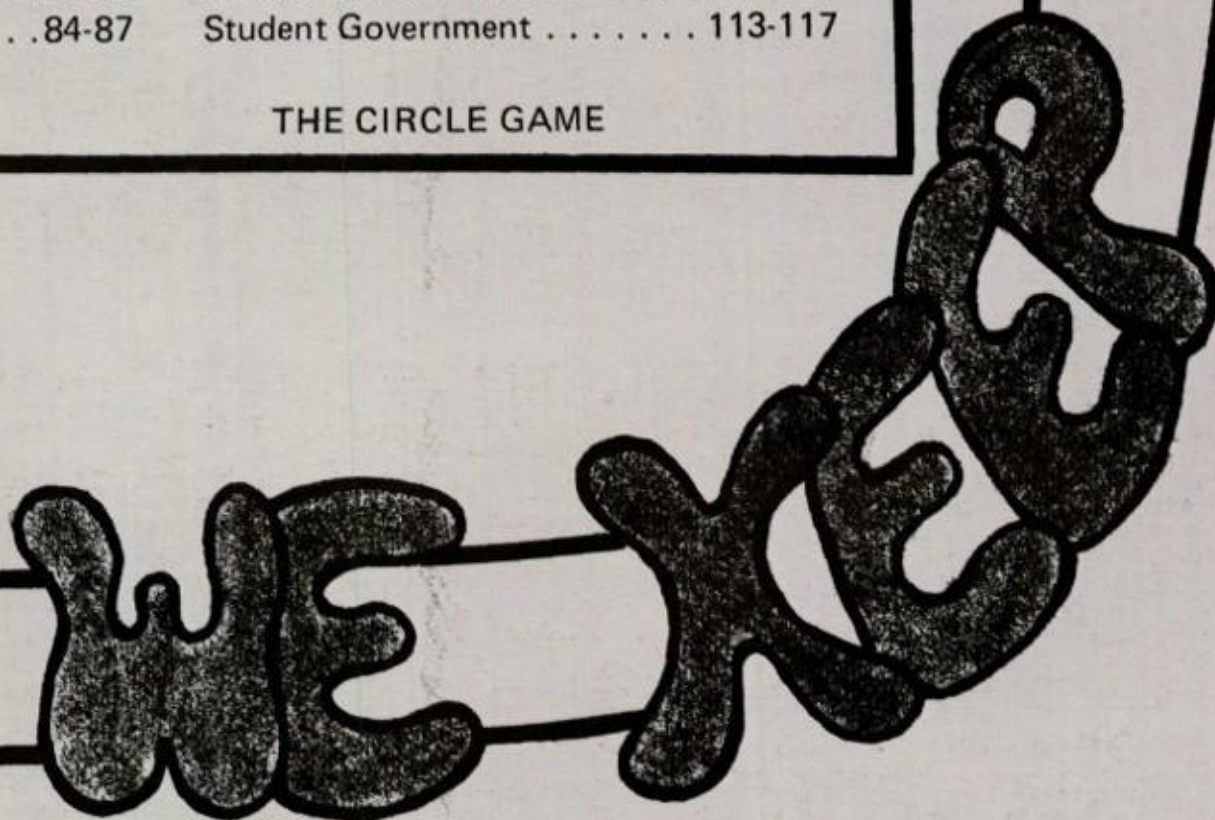

... And the seasons, they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down.
We're captive on the carousel of time.
We can't return,
We can only look behind from where we came
And go round and round and round in the circle game ...

THE CIRCLE GAME

Concert Band participated in many activities including being involved in the OSU Band Festival and having exchange concerts with Bend and Willamette. Because of conflicts with the date of the State Basketball Tournament, they were unable to attend the Large Group Contest in Eugene.

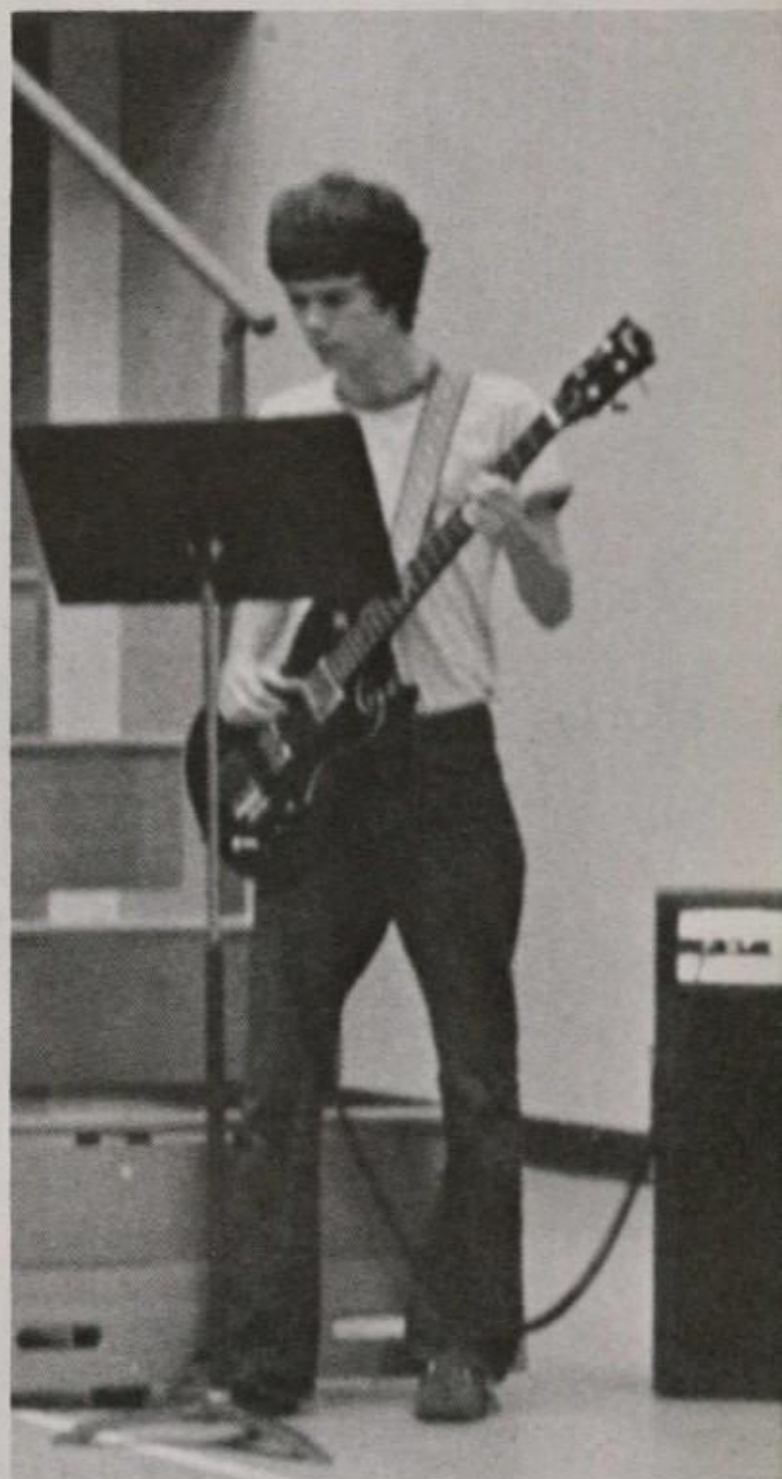

The Pep Band, directed by Mark Leedom, helped give the Rebel Basketball Team and spectators more spirit. The Pep Band accompanied the team to Gill Coliseum in Corvallis for the District Playoffs and again to Memorial Coliseum for State Playoffs.

Marching Band started off the year by marching down Pacific Blvd. in the Veteran's Day Parade. They then played at the Rebel home football games and put on half time shows.

Chamber Ensemble

Experience

Chamble Ensemble was a novice band; a lot of people took it to learn to play a new instrument or how to play better.

On their outings, they played for the grade schools.

When asked what she thought of the class, Junior Evelyn Jamison replied: "I've learned to tune by ear and count better."

Swing Choir Stands Out

Swing Choir has been fairly busy this year. They performed in about twelve concerts and sang for the elementary schools. They went to almost all the rest homes in Albany.

For outfits, Swing Choir chose beige pants and beige and white sweaters for the boys. The girls wore long green dresses with green jackets bordered by a light green and white stripe. Outfits were chosen by vote.

A Cappella Choir was best known by their red gowns.

Earlier in the year they traveled to Portland with the bands to hear the Oregon Symphony Orchestra.

Outstanding members of the Choir were Junior Dave Bean and Senior Gary Cook, who were chosen All North-West Choir; only approximately 450 students were selected from the entire Northwest.

CLOCKWISE: A CAPPELLA CHOIR: FRONT ROW: She Emmett, Tammy Hampton, Rob Gibbs, Victor Weygandt, Susan Arnold, Marquita Woods, Debbie Reynolds. Soprano section sings at winter concert. Colleen King, She Emmett and Le Bennett wait for bus to leave for the first Portland Symphony Concert.

South's Choirs Get New Voices

Girls Choir participated in three concerts and traveled to Portland to hear the Oregon Symphony Orchestra. Much of their singing was done in the class room. Most of the choir consisted of sophomores, so they did gain new voices. "I've learned a lot more than last year," said Junior Leslie Lucero.

Extramurals Is Having A "Good Time"

Two times each week for two months, ten girls played tennis strictly for recreation. This was a time to have fun, not necessarily to learn all the fundamentals.

According to Pat Archibald, it would be more fun if more girls turned out. She hopes more come out next year. "It was lots of fun and worthwhile for those that participated," stated Pat Archibald.

Softball Ends Third Season

South's Extramural Softball Team ended their third season with two three year participants: Seniors Chris Zehr and Jan Miller.

There were two teams, coached by Margaret Vanderford and Randy Lary. Vanderford's team ended with a 3-3 record, Lary's with a 4 loss 2 win record.

Coach Vanderford stated, "The girls who participated in softball are showing more and more improvement each year. The girls this year have been a great bunch to work with."

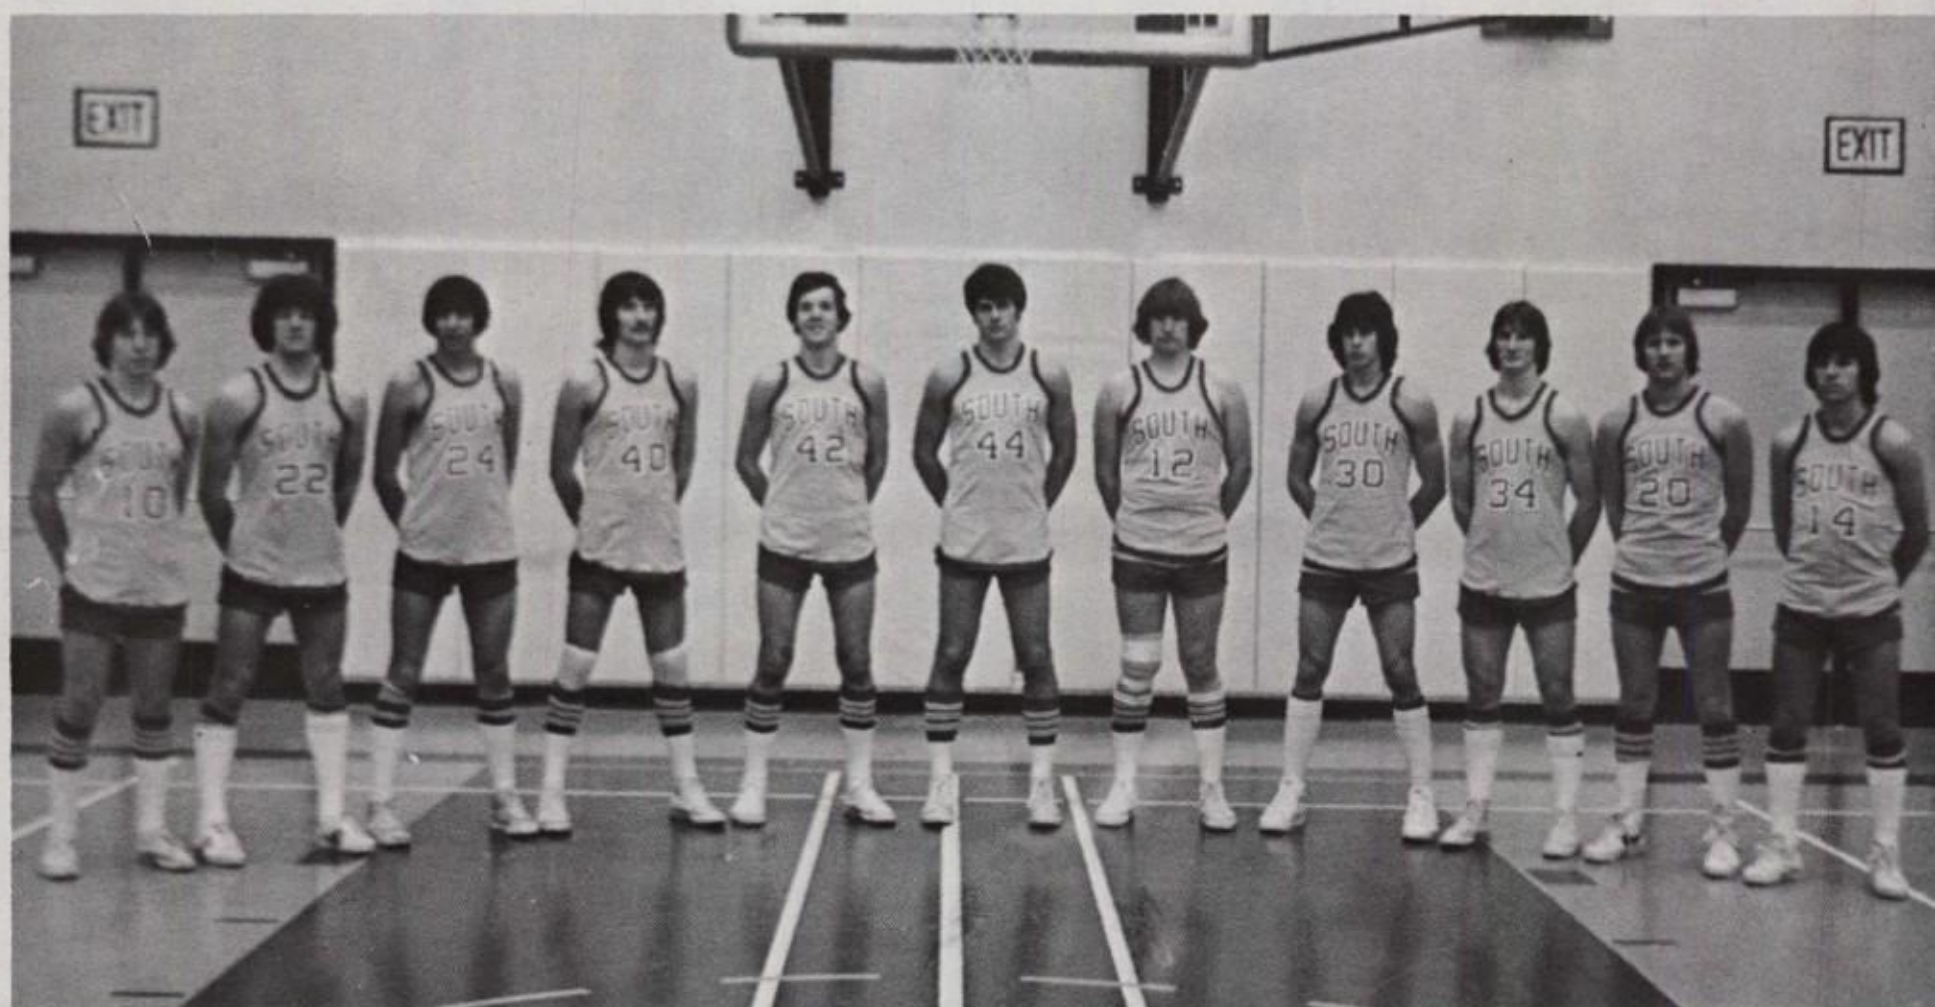

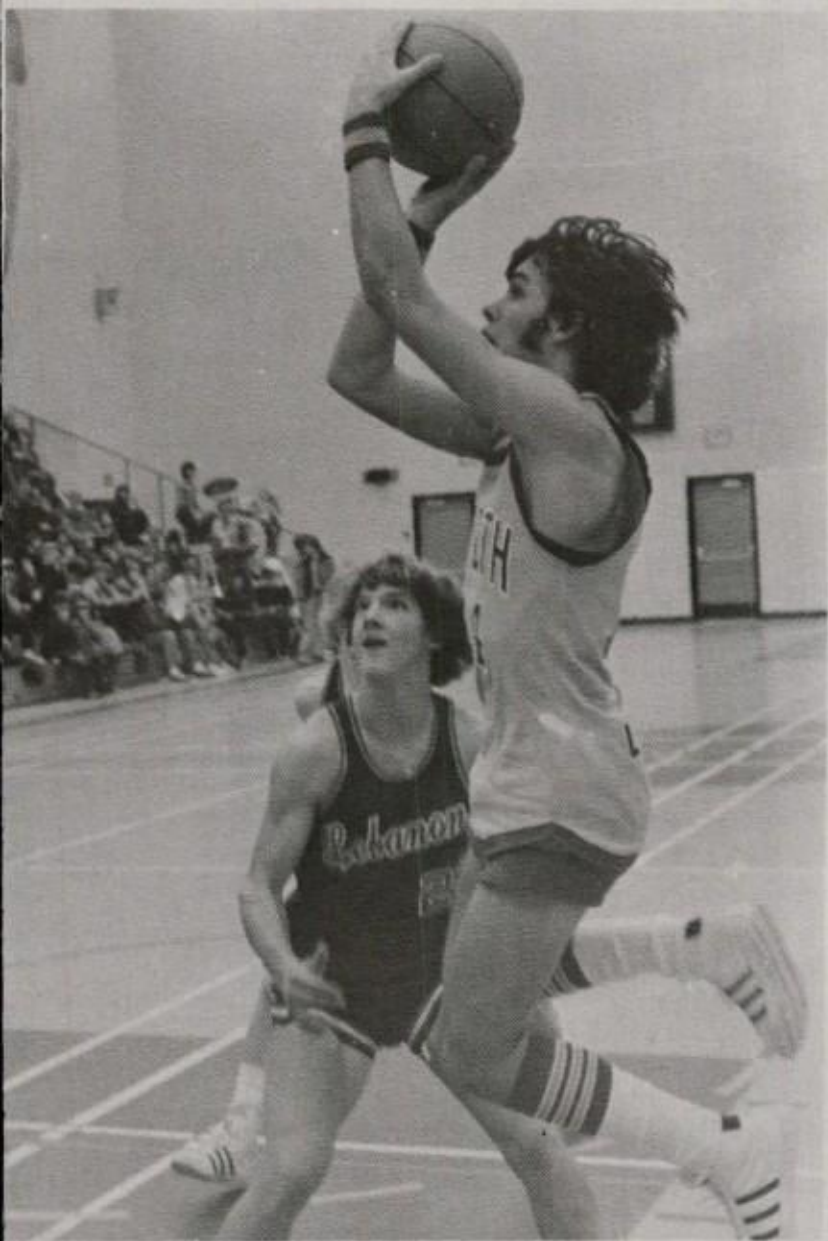

CLOCKWISE: Seniors Chris Zehr and Jan Miller were both three year extramural softball players. During a game between the two South teams, Chris pitches to Jan. Cagers Start Off Lethargically...

CLOCKWISE: Darren Marsh plays tight defense on West's Jim Holman. Wade Olson surveys McNary's defense. Coach Sandgren explains a play to his players. VARSITY BASKETBALL: Randy Graves, Tim Rediger, Paul Bacon, Yves Scaviner, Cordell Hull, Nick Westerberg, Ron Richardson, Wade Starbuck, Darren Marsh, Wade Olson, Kraig Luther.

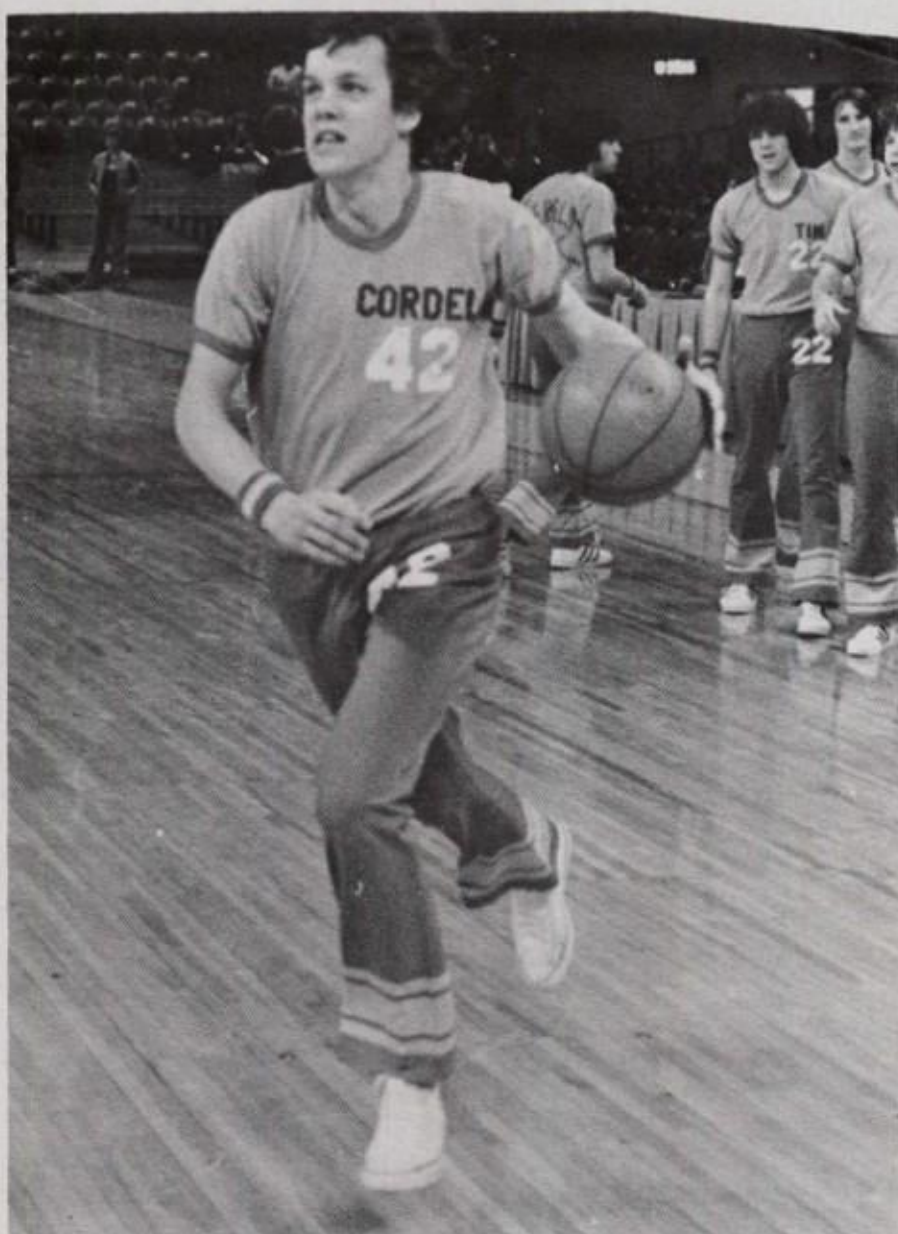

Like a car with bad points, South's Varsity Basketball Team was hard to get started. South fielded one of its youngest teams ever; with all the inexperience came losses. Coach Fred Sandgren felt that the team didn't play as well as it could have during most of the regular season.

But at times the team did show signs of playing well. And towards the end, the Rebels were like an ominous thunder storm exploding on the Valley League. South finished fourth and got a chance in the District playoff.

Kraig Luther was named first team all league, Nick Westerberg, second team, and Tim Rediger gained honorable mention.

CLOCKWISE: Yves Scaviner pulls up for a jump shot against Beaverton. Exhibiting acrobatics, Kraig Luther flies up for a shot. Paul Bacon and Ron Richardson scramble for the ball.

The team peaked at the end of the season, allowing us to play our best basketball when we needed it."

— Coach Sandgren

But When It Counted, They Won

But after the carbon was filed off, the team cranked up and took off. Towards the end of the regular season and on into the playoffs, Rebels played their best basketball, beating W. Albany 60-57 and Lebanon 59-53. Both had beaten South twice earlier in the year. Kraig Luther commented "I wasn't surprised at the district win."

Then the Cagers went up to Portland for the State Tourney, only to draw Grant, the number two team in the state! The Rebels just couldn't rebound with the bigger teams. But they won the next two straight, losing to Benson in the consolation finals, finishing eighth. Luther was named to the second All-Tourney Team.

Junior Varsity Shows Competitiveness

Junior Varsity Basketball had a 10-12 record but this didn't indicate their success. They lost many close games to some of the better teams in the league. Coach Gene Schmidt attributed their success to strong team defense and intense competitiveness.

When asked what their best game was, Armie Van Eaton replied, "Our best game was West Albany, because we really got psyched for them." Jerry Boehme thought that their win over North Salem in the second game was their best because they were beaten badly the first time.

The team was hurt somewhat by injuries. Mike Weisner, who shot fifty-six percent from the field, missed half the season due to an operation. The people who played this year should be good additions to next year's varsity.

New Coach Gives Girls Intensity

It was the second season of girl's competitive basketball, but the first year for Roland Carpenter: "I really enjoyed coaching girls," states Carpenter.

Coach Carpenter led the South Albany Varsity Basketball team to a 7-11 season with key wins during the second round over arch rival West Albany and Lebanon.

A pizza party was held after the season to award the following players: Most Valuable, Helen Roth; Most Inspirational, Stephanie Haslam; Most Improved, Peggy Guyer.

Junior Lois Covalt summed up the season: "I really enjoyed playing this year because we were closer as a team."

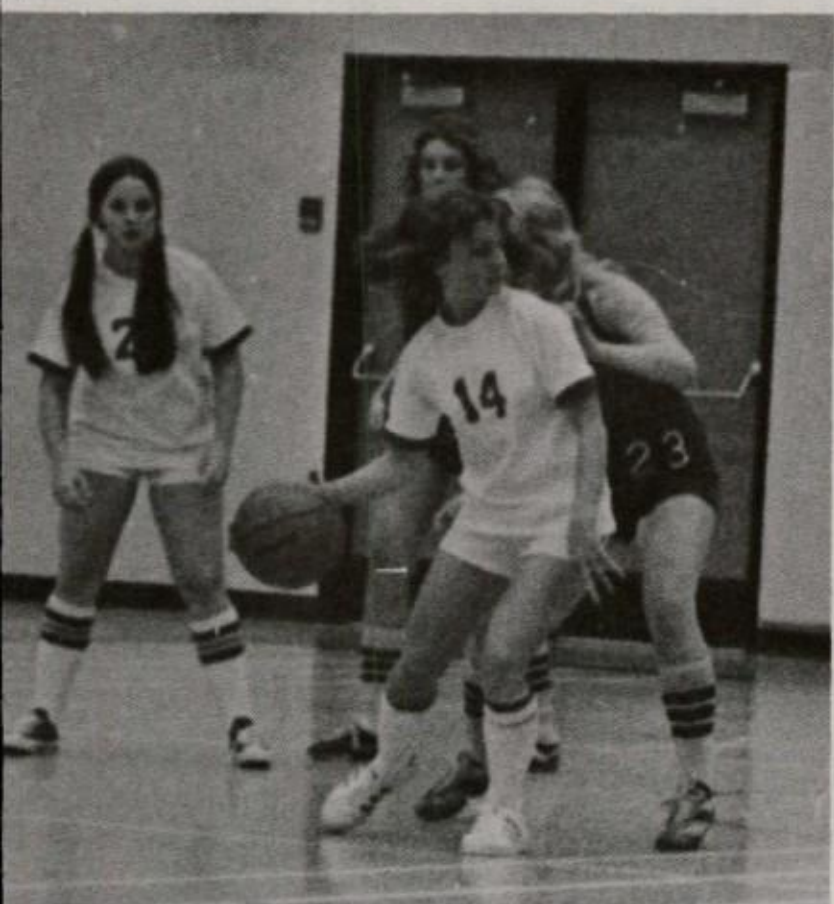

"This team played to the very end of every game. I only felt bad about two or three games."

Belles Keep On Kicking

17 girls made up the Southern Belles; they had only five returning members. They worked every day on the routines they had developed themselves. Ms. Hotchkiss stated, "They preferred to build their routines around disco music."

The girls performed at three basketball assemblies, Veteran's Day Parade, basketball halftimes and two competitions. Two of their favorite songs for routines were "Get Away" by Earth Wind and Fire and "Get Right Back" by Maxine Nightengale.

"I think this has been a very good year because I had excellent girls to work with," said Ms. Hotchkiss.

Becky Jensen commented: "I really enjoyed it because I met a lot of nice people and learned how to work together under pressure."

Juniors Prove Their Spirit

Junior class President Dave Bean remarked: "The Junior class has shown great spirit ever since we were sophomores. It's apparent because we've won the spirit trophy two years in a row."

Besides planning for Spirit Week, the Class of '78's major project consisted of putting on the Junior-Senior Prom. They also had a car bash and dunk tank at the Spring Fling.

During the week of April 25-29, they sponsored the Twirp Week daily activities, while the GRA had charge of the Twirp Week dance. Juniors started off early by having summer car washes. When football season rolled along the Juniors were selling spirit buttons and helped out in the concession stand. During basketball season they sold more spirit buttons and programs.

MEMORY MARKER

We hope that within these pages you will find the photographs and words to help recapture the spirit of this year.

This book is your only permanent record of a memorable year.

Don't forget to use it again:

- to remember a face
- to recall a place
- to relive a game
- to remember a name.

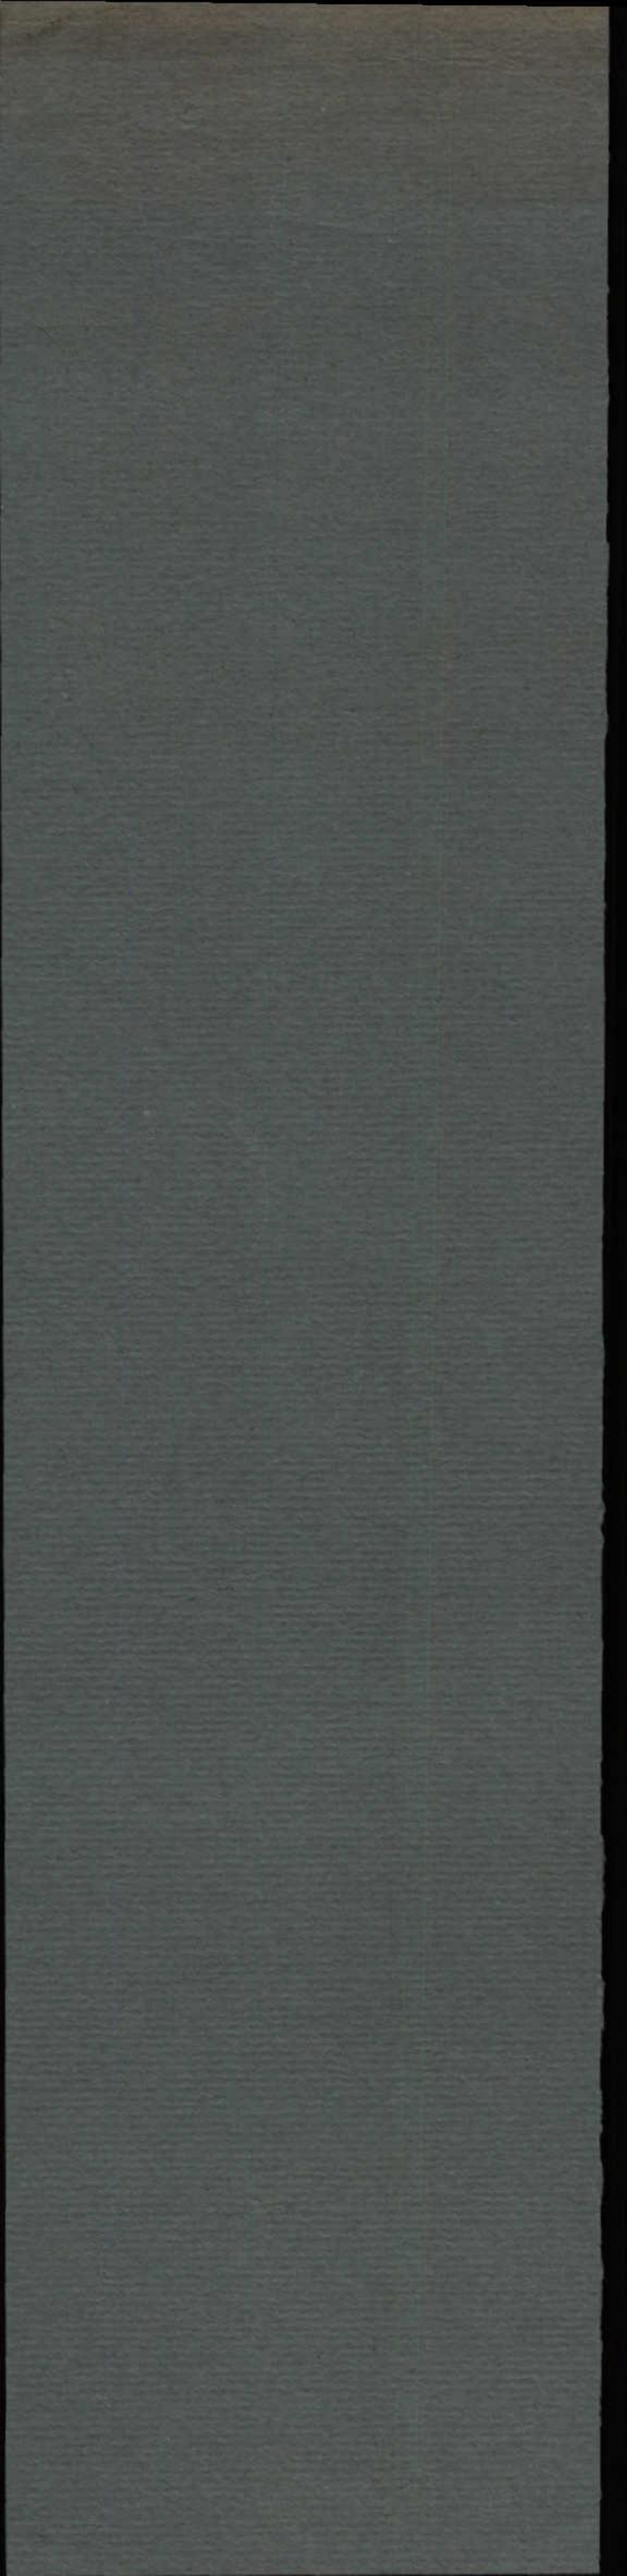

Enjoy the memories.

Their value will increase with the passing years.

Swimmers

Rebel swimmers started out with a slow and discouraging season. According to Coach Maggie Birch, the young team needed support and better facilities; they shared Albanys YMCA with West and practices got a little hectic.

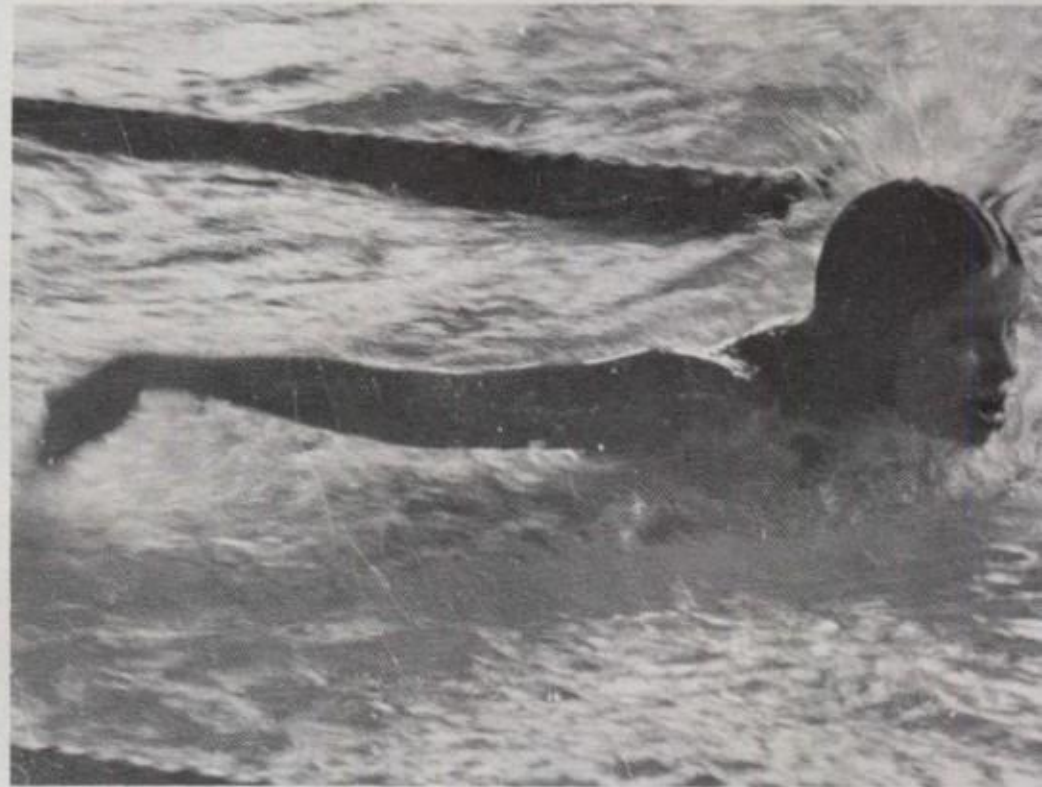

Maggie commented that "Although we needed more swimmers, the ones we had tried hard and gave their best."

A highlight of the season was when David Lyon, second year swimmer, placed 12th in District in Breast Stroke.

DISTRICT — 3rd

The Varsity Wrestling Team did an outstanding job this year at District, six wrestlers qualified for the State Tournament at David Douglas High School in Portland. The Rebels went into the State Tournament with a third place District title.

According to Lamont Simons, head coach, the reason for their success was simple: "The kids wanted to win and did it."

The wrestlers who had individual triumphs were Warren Jegglie who won two matches in District, Jim Acklund who wrestled well all season to make a position in the State Tournament. Jeff Rodgers, Jeff Cowley, and Burt Creighton all beat the District number one seed to qualify to wrestle at State.

The outlook for the 77-78 season is excellent with every wrestler returning except Burt Creighton.

"We had a very successful season and coaches and kids will be looking forward to a District and State title"—Lamont Simons

David Schaefer concentrates on pinning his Crescent Valley opponent.

JV's End Season With A "Bang"

The Junior Varsity wrestlers started out the season small and inexperienced. They were lacking in upper weights which automatically caused them to lose points by forfeit.

A mid-season slump plagued many wrestlers but then they ended the season with a "Bang", winning every match from Corvallis except one. "The team did an excellent job this year finishing the season at 4-4 in League competition", said Coach Larry Lockett.

Junior Varsity's purpose was to build strong wrestlers for a future Varsity and, according to Coach Lockett, the goal was reached: "We are expecting big things in the future from this group of young men."

Talent Show

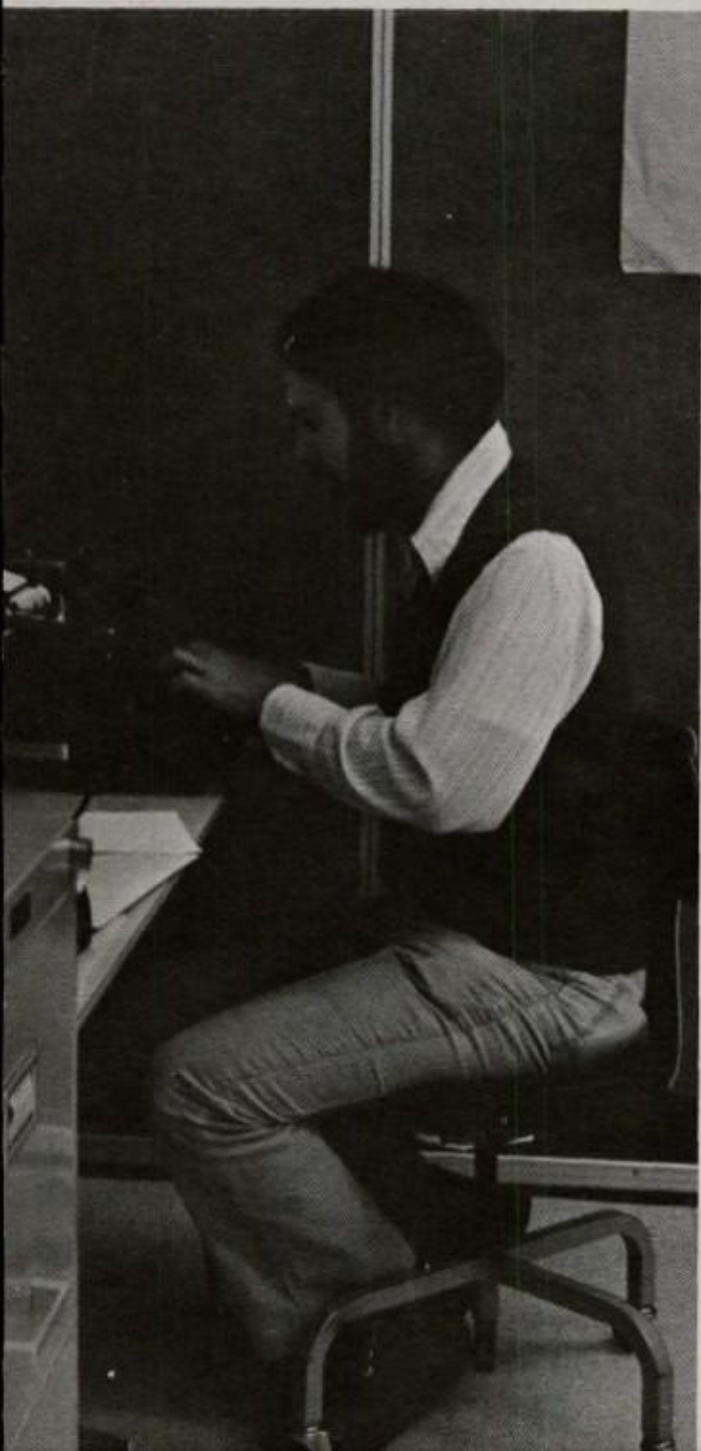

South Albany's Sixth Annual Talent Show was presented February 17 and 19 in the Little Theater under new Acting Director Clyde Curley and Student Directors Cindy Johnson and Linda Sonne.

The entire show circled around Lauri (Shelly Emmett), a young country girl fresh off the bus. She wanted to hit the big time, so Agent Bob McConnell (Master of Ceremonies), showed Lauri his talented cast; among them were South Albany's Swing Choir, singing a medley of oldies, and South's A.F.S. student, Yves Scaviner, doing two comical skits.

As Bob McConnell put it, "It was different because there were more sophomores, more variety and because it was laid out as a play." As the Talent Show came to an end, Lauri does find her place in Show Business.

"Oh What A Night" At The Pro

The Senior Class Council presented the Christmas Prom on Saturday, December 18. The dance was from 8 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. with music provided by BUTTERFAT.

Sixty-Four couples attended the Prom, with girls wearing long dresses and guys in nice dress pants.

As each couple approached the big Christmas tree in the center of the floor, somewhere on it could be found a little wooden tree with their names on it.

Off in one corner of the cafeteria, Prom Pictures were being taken by Hawleywood Photography.

Chaperones for the event were: Mr. & Mrs. Eldon Durham, Mr. & Mrs. Royal Hastie, Mr. & Mrs. Doug Killin, Mr. & Mrs. Terry Leininger, Mr. & Mrs. Larry Lockett, and Mr. & Mrs. Bob Rondeau.

When Mark Scheer was asked what he thought of the dance, he said: "It was the best date I ever had."

REBELS COMMENT ON '77 RALLY

Coach Larry Lockett:

"As a member of the coaching staff, my association with this year's rally has been very pleasing. The girls were outstanding not only during the games, but in their efforts with locker signs, treats and other duties they performed for the teams. Many times in the tense moments after competition these things go unheralded. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the girls on behalf of myself and the team."

Senior Ted Harrison:

"This is the best rally in my memory that South has had. It's the first group that was selected by committee and I think the new process definitely helped."

"This year the spirit could have been a little bit better" said Pam Sadowsky. And the people who attempted to arouse this spirit were the Varsity Rally Squad: Seniors Martha Briggs, Tammy Casper, Ivanna Hastie, Tina Sandgren, Diane Valburg, and Junior Pam Sadowsky.

The squad attended a rally camp during the summer at Lewis and Clark college in Portland. Diane Valburg stated: "It was really a lot of fun, but a lot of hard work too! I thought we did pretty good for our first time as a squad." They brought home with them three superior ribbons and an Excellent and the Spirit Stick which was used in pep assemblies to arouse spirit. When raised, the classes would show spirit by yelling; when down, classes would quiet. "It had worked quite well," according to Sherry Westerberg, JV Cheerleader, and Pam Sadowsky.

Advisor Bonnie Carlson summed it up by saying, "The goal of this year's rally squads was to send Rebel spirit 'Sky High'. The girls were hardworking and an enjoyable addition to Rebel athletics."

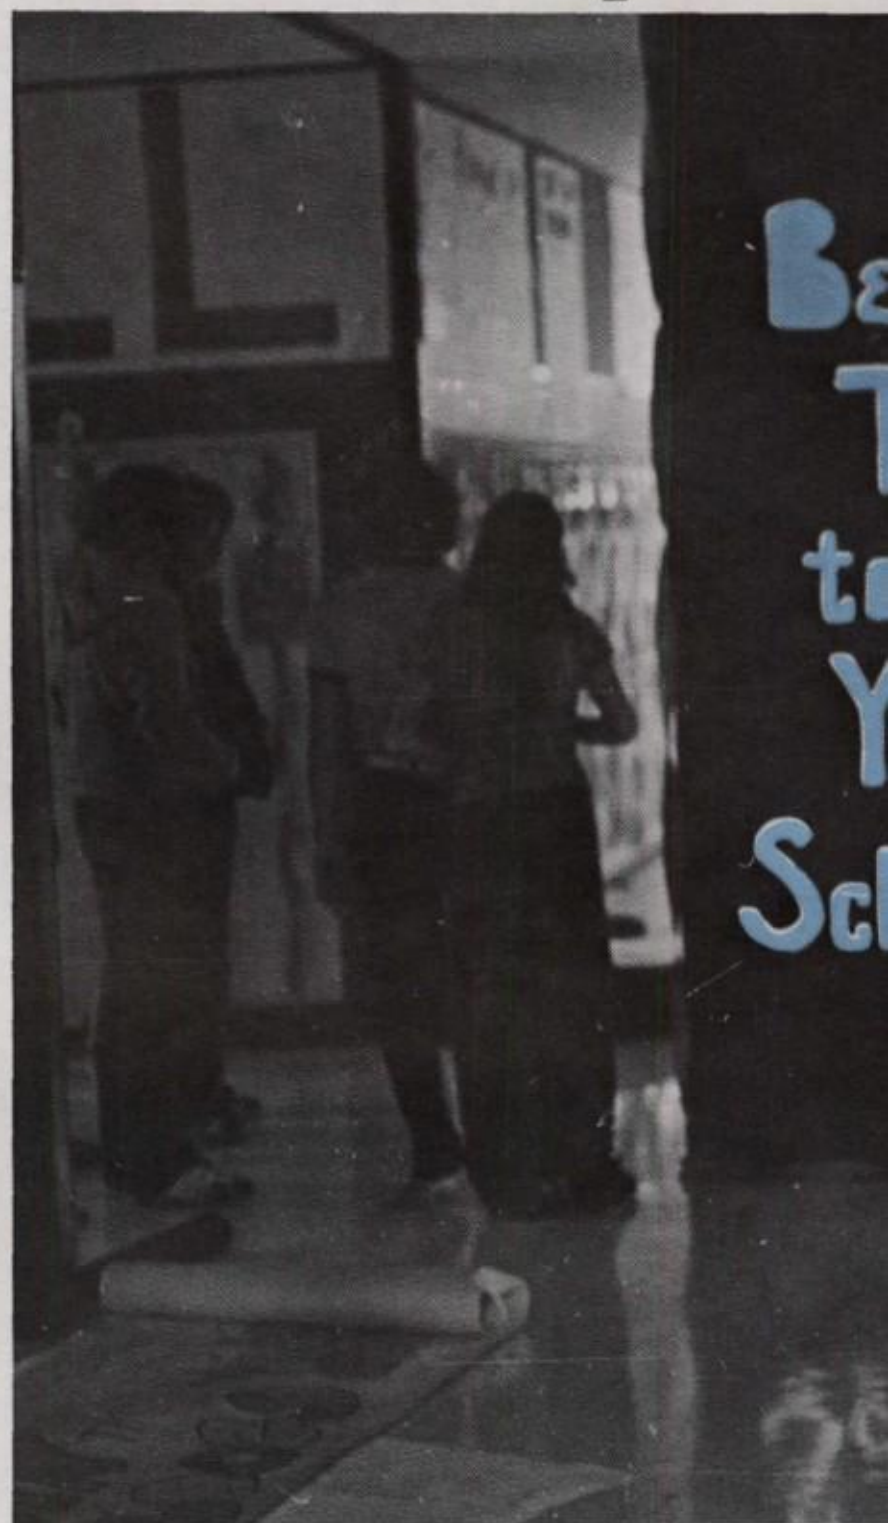

Spirit Week Proves Juniors Most Spirited

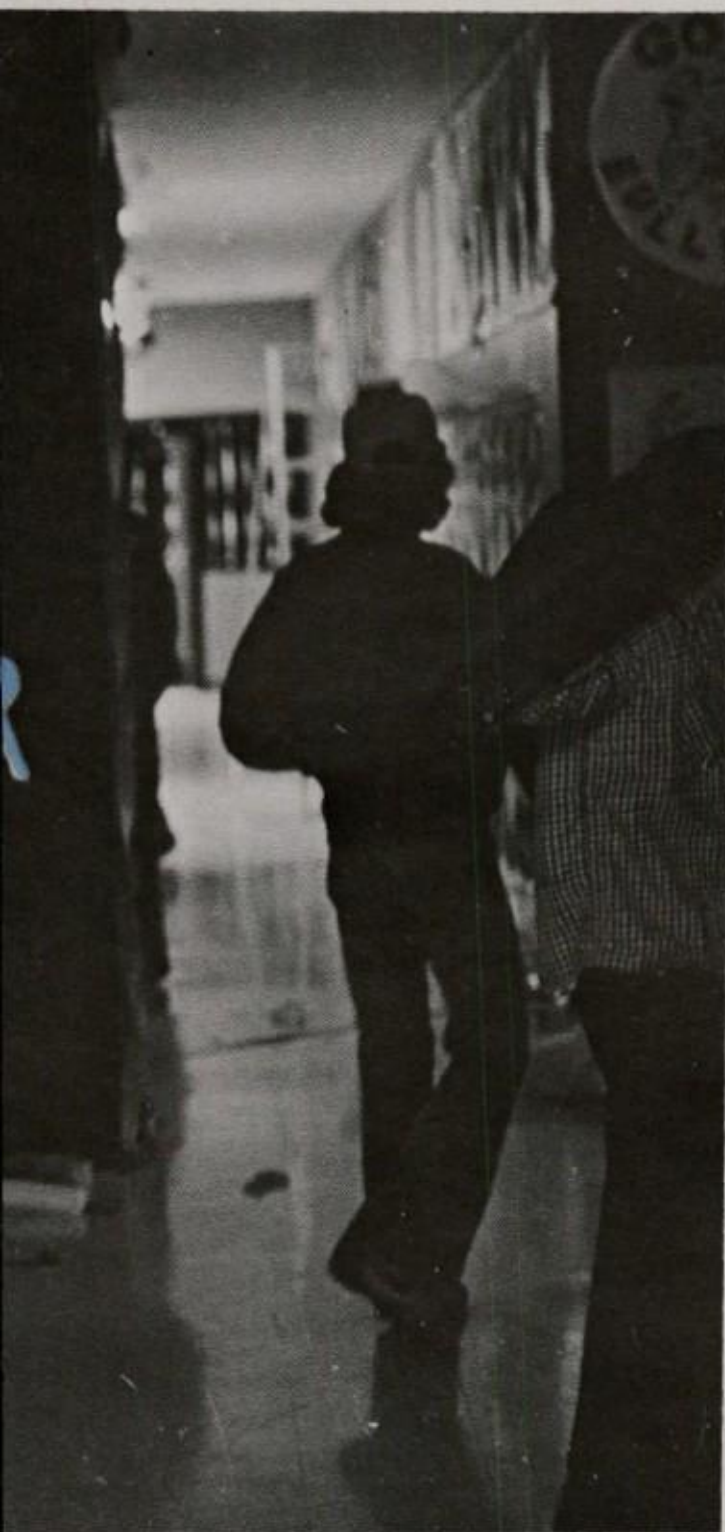

Spirit Week started off on Monday, January 17, with students wearing mufflers; that night decorations went up. When Tricia Coats was asked how she felt about the decorating, she replied: "... It was a big disappointment to everyone when people started ripping down decorations."

The rest of the week was filled with activities such as the Pogo Stick Race and Slave Auction. Highlighting the week was the Beauty Contest held Thursday noon in the cafeteria, with Beauties Senior Mike Christensen, Juniors Don Craig and Mark Scheer and Sophomores Pat Lillie and Tom Valencia.

Finals were held Friday at the Pep Assembly. Top beauty according to judges was Mark Scheer; his victory gave his class a spirit point.

The week ended with juniors on top with 26 spirit points, seniors in second place with 10 points and sophomores last with 6 points.

A Smile Can Ease Troubled Times

Time Does Not Mean Change

Sitting with a counselor, nodding, yeah, that's right. But thinking underneath, you can set your own sights.

So in a dozen years . . .

Listening but not hearing, Right mom. Yeah, dad, sure. And you wonder what's wrong with this teenager of yours.

There you are in Auto or Chemistry or Lit., Struggles with that essay, welding, being sure it fits.

Then in a dozen years . . .

"As student body officer," (these promises you make:) "I'll see you all are happy, I'll be sure you get the breaks!"

(Maybe) In a dozen years . . .

The dog ate my homework, The alarm didn't go off. What's wrong with twenty tardies? I don't deserve an F!

But in a dozen years . . .

SENTRY Presses On

Sentry Staff produced a school newspaper once every two weeks during the 1976-77 school year for a total of 15 papers.

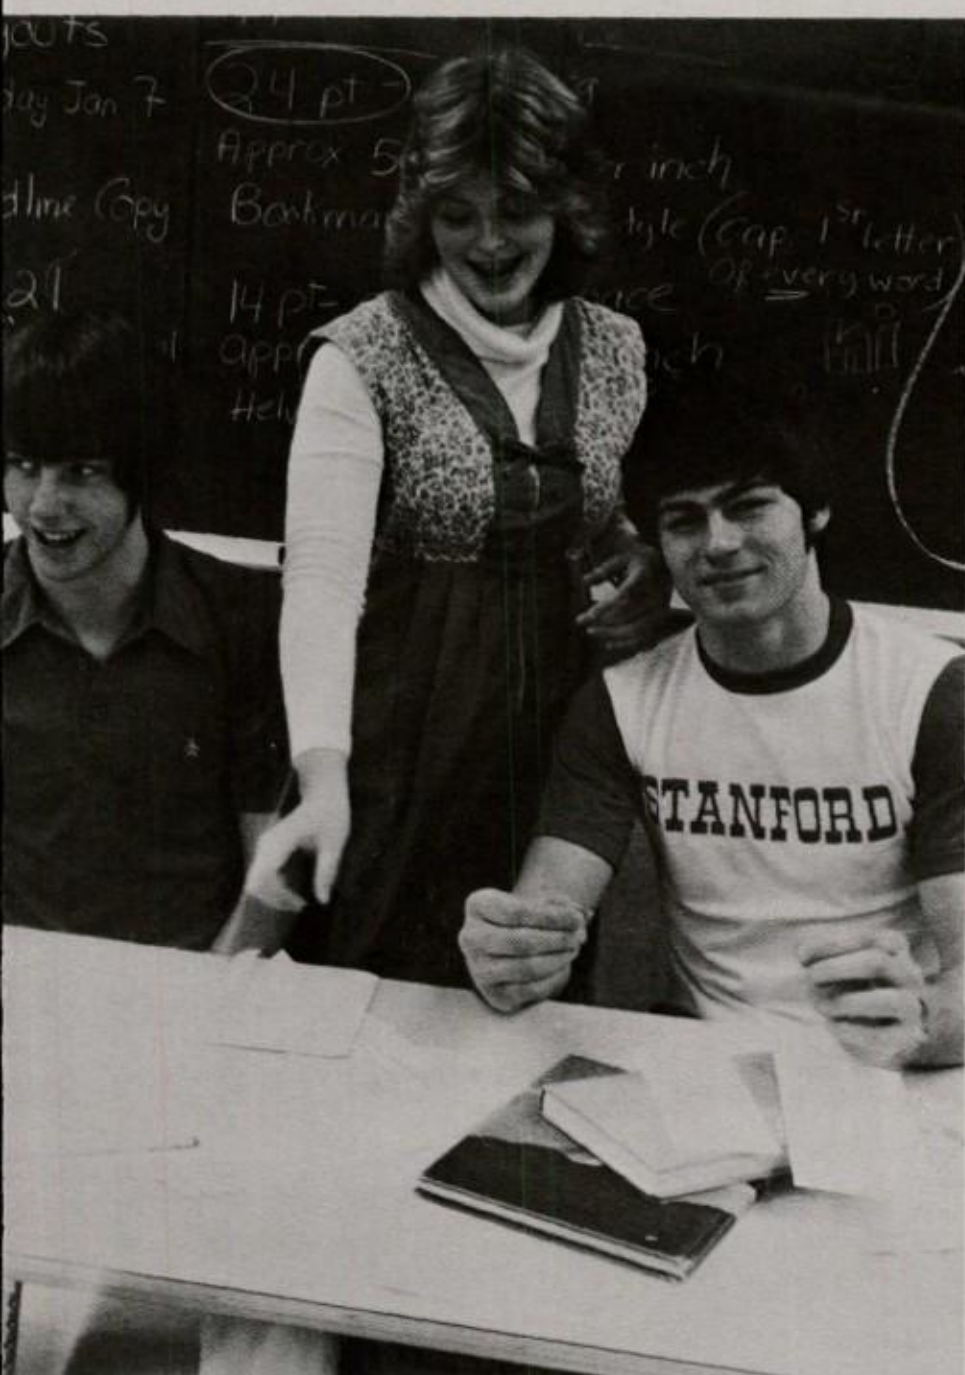

"The staff was not the strongest we've ever had, but they were hard workers," stated Editor Tom Wells. According to a faculty member, the paper did a terrific job covering the near strike situation in the fall.

The Staff had a big advancement when they acquired a private phone in the room and two new typewriters.

SAPERE AUDE :

Ads Produce Color

Because Sapere Aude had only five returning staff members, the first weeks of school were spent learning the basics of putting together a yearbook.

Besides mastering yearbook technique, the staff became salespeople. Thanks to the District's change in policy, the yearbook staff was able to sell ads for the first time in South's history. With more money coming in, the staff was able to produce a bigger yearbook plus a few pages of color.

Even though the staff seemed to always have some kind of problem, with the help of Advisor Karin Krakauer the staff was able to work together to produce, in the words of Editor Lori McLain, "The best issue yet of the Sapere Aude."

"To the Student Body of South Albany:

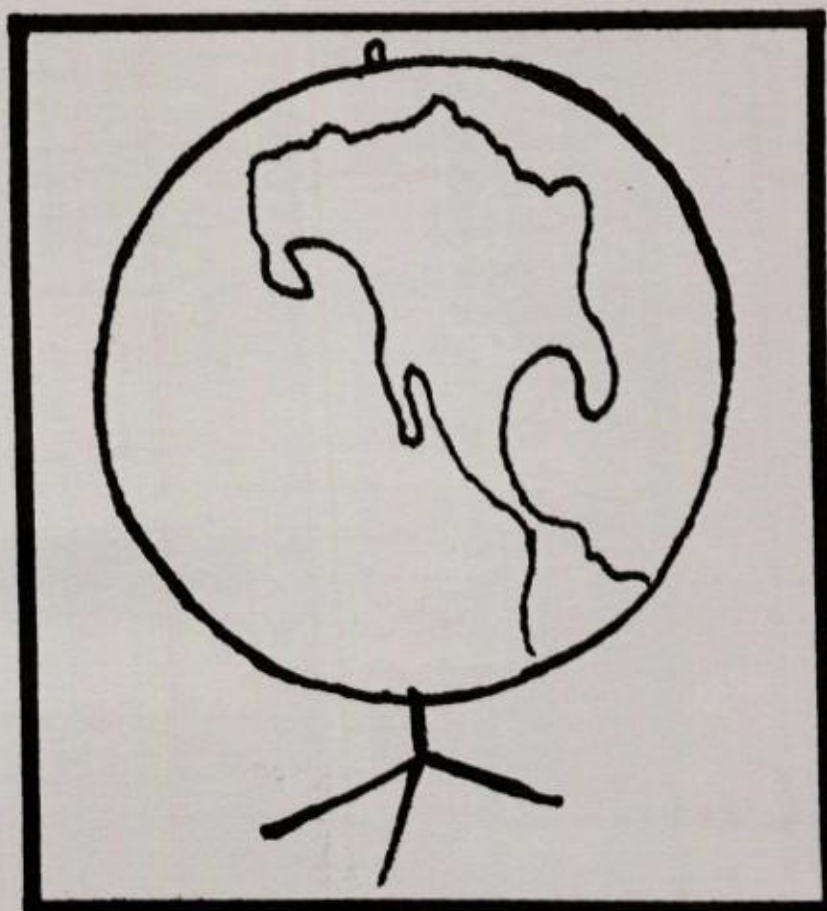

As an A.F.S. student, I was expecting a lot of things, weird things like eating a peach with a steak or a town made of highways like San Francisco, people looking for money all day long and so on . . .

Instead, I found a town like in France, the food (almost) good, and some very kindly people. An A.F.S. year is like going on a boat around the world: You don't know what you are going to find, but when you found it you enjoy it.

This year has been terrific so far, I have to thank all the students who made this year one of the best years of my life.

I will bring a lot of things with me, T.P. is one, a lot of nice souvenirs, basketball for example. And I really want to come back."

"We Came, We Grew, We Left"

The Student Government strived to handle the problems and projects as they came up. They also adjusted to new ideas and rules of a new principal, Mr. Eldon Durham.

Lack of participation was a problem the Student Government faced. But they did help coordinate the Blood-mobile and decorated the Student Body Office.

According to Ted Harrison, Student Body President, all the committees went well, but he was disappointed in the assemblies. He summed up: "We came, we grew, we left."

Never Reaching An End

Infinity—it's a big word.
The meaning of which, so incomprehensible,
Staggers my mind,
Yet it is what we face now.
And the possibilities of what I can do
Or not do, if I so choose,
Stagger my mind even more.

NEVER REACHING AN END

Lovelace Leads Female Spikers

The 1977 Girls Track team had little success this year, but there were some bright spots: Janet Lovelace was a District champion in the two mile; she now holds the District record for that event.

For the team it was a 0-8 dual meet record and a last place finish at district. Coach Maggie Birch hopes to get more people interested in the years to come.

"Those that stayed out and stuck with it, really worked hard."
—Coach Birch

Cindermen Have Best District Finish Ever

The 1977 Boys' Track Team was considered to have been successful by Head Coach Mike Sowder. The team finished fifth in District, scoring more points than ever before. They had two District champions: Tony Lemerande in the 120 high hurdles and Mark Leedom in the high jump. Gary Killgore also qualified for state in the mile run.

Coach Sowder admits that the success was due in part to the coaching staff. There were some new faces: Coach Mike McClendon coached the throwing events, Coach Steinhauer came from the junior high along with the freshman track team to form a J.V. team. Coach Webber remained from last year to coach the distance running events.

Coach Sowder thinks this year will establish a strong platform for years to come. The team was young with the five top scorers being juniors.

"I feel that the Track program is on its way to being a strong power in the District, and they should be strong contenders in years to come."
—Coach Sowder

South Keeps Swinging

South Albany's Girls' Tennis Team didn't have an outstanding season. "Some matches were pretty discouraging; this is a strong tennis league," stated Coach Karin Krakauer. But she added: "Players pretty much supported each other."

One high point of the season was achieving a victory: beating Cascade 7-1 after loosing to them 2-3 the first match of the season.

South Girls "did play well at District." Sophomore April Roth made it into consolation quarters. Seniors Terri Kuske and Tina Sandgren went into the semi-final round of consolation, loosing to a West Albany team.

Team morale was boosted by weekly "Burgerville Awards" The players with the most games at the end of each week received the award.

Most Improved Player award was presented to April; Sandgren was voted The Most Valuable Player.

Racketmen Have Discouraging Year

Every weekday, the Boys' tennis team met at either 4 or 5:30 p.m. for a practice consisting of services, overheads, volleys, and general tennis strategies. Watching a practice, one might overhear some advising and coaching among the players since there "was an interest and concern in each other's game," according to Coach Bob McMasters.

It was hard to get the whole team at every practice since many players had jobs and tried to play tennis and work at the same time.

The team was a young and inexperienced one, with only three players graduating.

DRAMA PRESENTS

"You Can't Take It With You"

The Spring play, which was aired May 12, 13 & 14, was considered a success by Director Clyde Curley. The play, entitled "You Can't Take It With You", was a three act comedy by Moss Hart and George S. Kauffman.

The play centered around an eccentric family and their concern about the engagement of their daughter Alice (Connie Hall) to Tony (Jeff Davis). Ted Harrison played the part of Grandpa; according to Sentry Reporter Sandy Hines, he added the spark that made the play so very entertaining.

There were twice as many people trying out for parts as could be cast for the play. The cast rehearsed for five and a half weeks before the presentation, which was viewed by a good public turnout. Mr. Curley commented that its success was due in part to good community involvement.

"I've never worked with a more responsive, eager cast. They put on a play that didn't let down from curtain to curtain. The technical people put out 100% also, and deserved an equal share of the applause."

—Director Clyde Curley

With only two returning lettermen, South fielded a team with little experience; the league was full of good teams. But even though South was inexperienced, they were in every game. As evidence, were the games against League Champ Corvallis: The first was 0-1, the second 3-5!

There were five people making All League Honorable Mention: Rod Quigley, Ron Richardson, Randy Nelson, Tim Rediger and Brian Henderson.

Next year the team will be a little more experienced with a good nucleus coming back.

JV's Can't Make Big Play

"Even though we improved
few times did we come up with the big play to win the game."

—Coach Schmidt

Though the team went through a heartbreaking year, they gained experience.

Coach Schmidt thought that one game typified the season: it was played on Friday the 13th with South leading 8-7; the opponents hit a double down the left field line that was in by six inches and scored a run to win the game.

Sophomore player Wayne Doyle summed up the season in a poem:

No tears of Joy
No tears of Sorrow
We lost the game
But there's still tomorrow!

Despite the wet weather, Spring Fling happened on May 4. Chairperson Connie Hall stated happily, "It was a BIG success!"

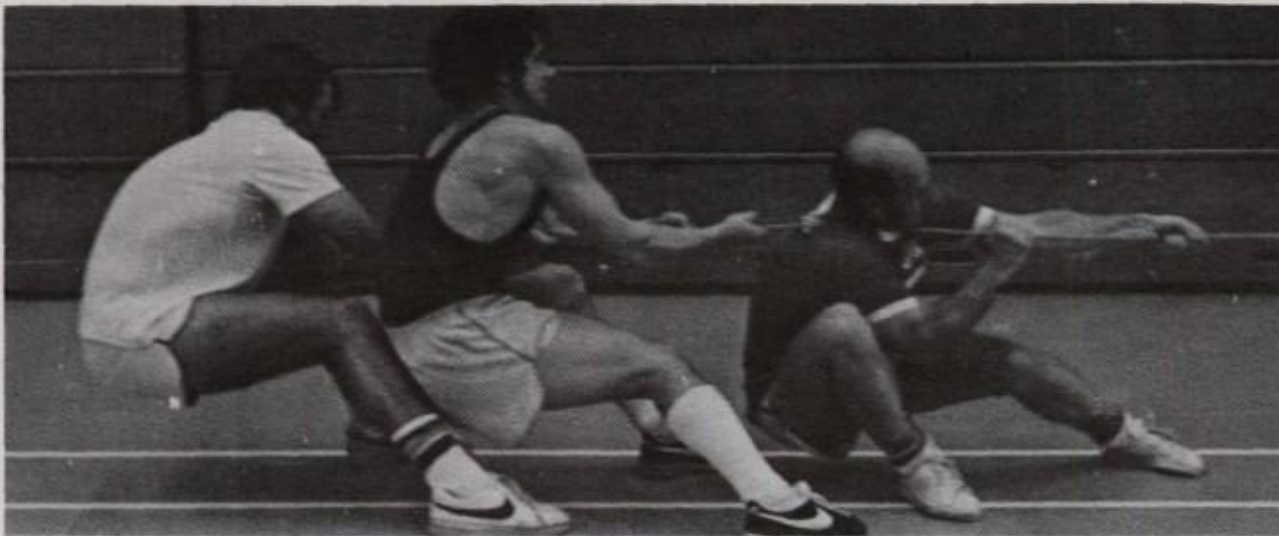

Varied activities kept students involved most of the time. The events began at 11 with the Superstar Show consisting of male competitors from each class and from faculty; the faculty won. It ended at 3:30 with members of the University of Oregon Gymnastic Team performing and an awards presentation.

Many of SA clubs operated concession stands to earn money. There were many other activities: Drama from South Albany and Crescent Valley, music from SA, LBCC, Midnight Rock Band and the Lebanon, SA and WA Stage Bands. A car show was held with trophies given to the best cars: 1st place winner Junior Rick Verburg, 2nd Sophomores Bob Verburg, and 3rd Junior Mike Brown; runners up received ribbons. Outstanding student awards went to Senior Mike Knudson, Junior Becky Ries, and Sophomore Chris Small.

Yes, Spring Fling came back from the past "successfully."

Sophomore Tammy Rediger

"Do You Wanna Dance?"

MANY STUDENTS SAY NO!

Spring Fling may have come back, but Twirp Week's "Daily activities were cancelled because of lack of participation," stated many from the Junior Class, sponsors of the attempted event.

However, the Twirp dance did go on. It was held May 7 from 8-11:30, but lasted only until 10. "It was there but people failed to take notice," stated GRA President Sue Hillyer. "Around 30 tickets were sold but only about half the couples showed up and most soon left!"

The GRA organization put on the Disco dance. The records were donated by KGAL and Disco Jockey Marv Carsten came along to take care of the music.

OPPOSITE PAGE CLOCKWISE: Junior Doug Mendenhall, Senior David Stone, and Sophomore Art Gnos receive ribbons for winning the spelling contest. Up and Down Season For Linksters

With a 10 win-9 loss record, the South Albany Golf Team had "good days and bad days!" "Mike Lillie and Wade Olson were South's two top golfers and Brian Grenz was most improved," stated Coach Costello.

District for the team ended with a first day fifth in total score; the second day ended with a third best in the tournament. They were two strokes away from being in third place for both days.

Outlook for next years team: "We do have a nucleus to form a team with two juniors and two sophomores," explained Costello.

Sophomore Dan Tyvoll walks his way to the next hole at Spring Hill Golf Course.

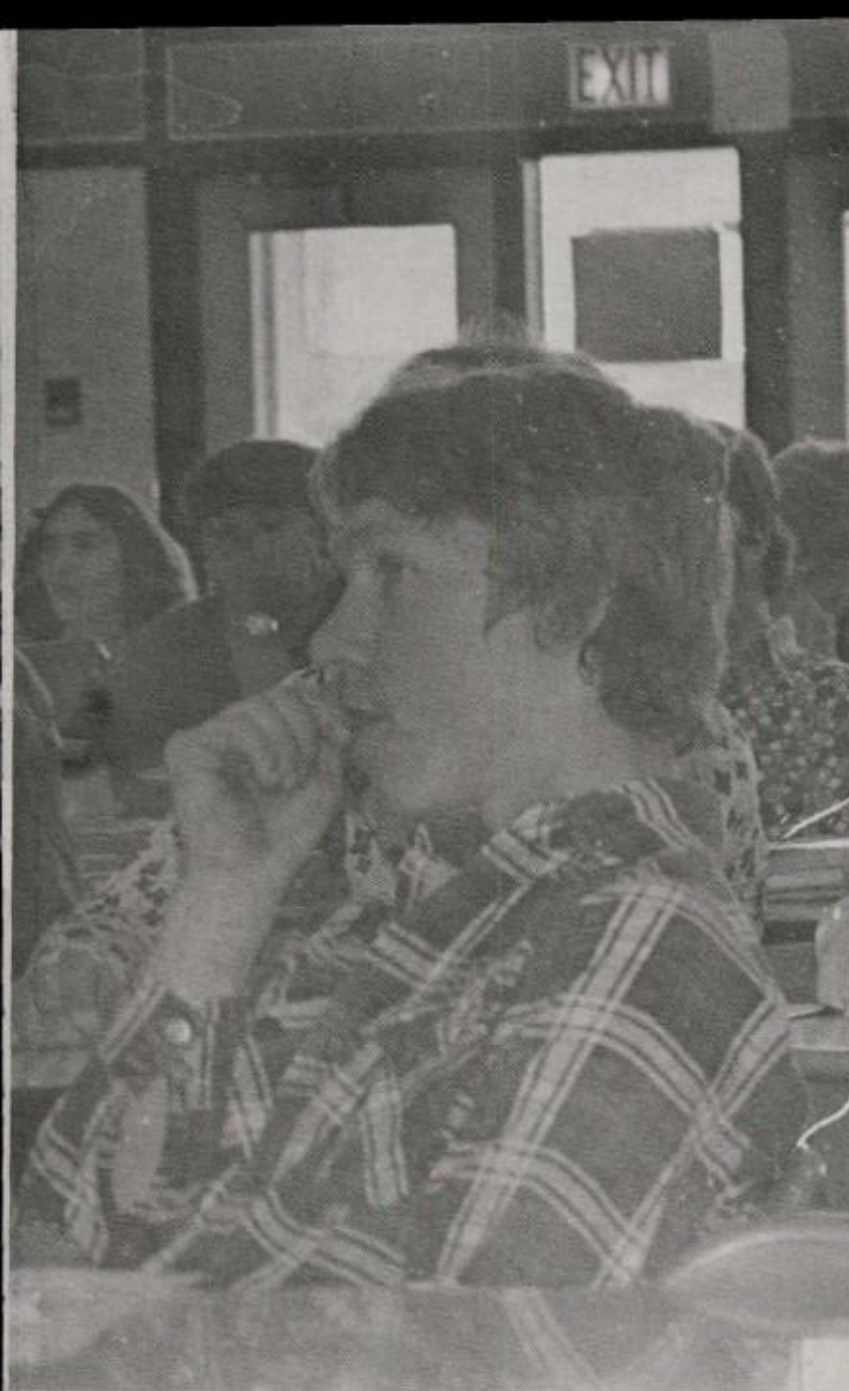

"It was an up and down season; we were not consistent enough: good days and bad days."

Pull It Together

The 1977 Senior Class consisted of 235 individuals, all with minds of their own. They came together to sponsor the Christmas Prom and took second place during Spirit Week. One of the final projects they accomplished was planning their graduation and baccalaureate exercises.

Cheri Richardson, senior class president, stated, "I think that our senior year started out slow, probably because of senioritis, but towards the end we really pulled together and had a good time."

The 1977 Junior Senior Prom was held on May 21. Many of the 94 couples that attended said it was the best prom they had ever been to. The success could be attributed to the committees that put the prom together and the band, Round-Trip. THIS PAGE CLOCKWISE: Junior Dave Bean pours water into the lighted fountain to test its effect against the starred sky. Teacher June Swedberg and Junior Janell Bash discuss the problems of decorating for a prom. SENIOR COURT: Kraig Luther, Tammy Casper, Jeff Anderson, Diane Covey, Nick Westerberg, Diane Valburg, King Keith Ritchie, Queen Jan Miller, Wade Starbuck, Tina Sandgren, Terri Bonfield, Darren Marsh, Carolyn Houston, Yves Scaviner, Martha Briggs, George Hosier, Cheri Richardson, Wade Olson.

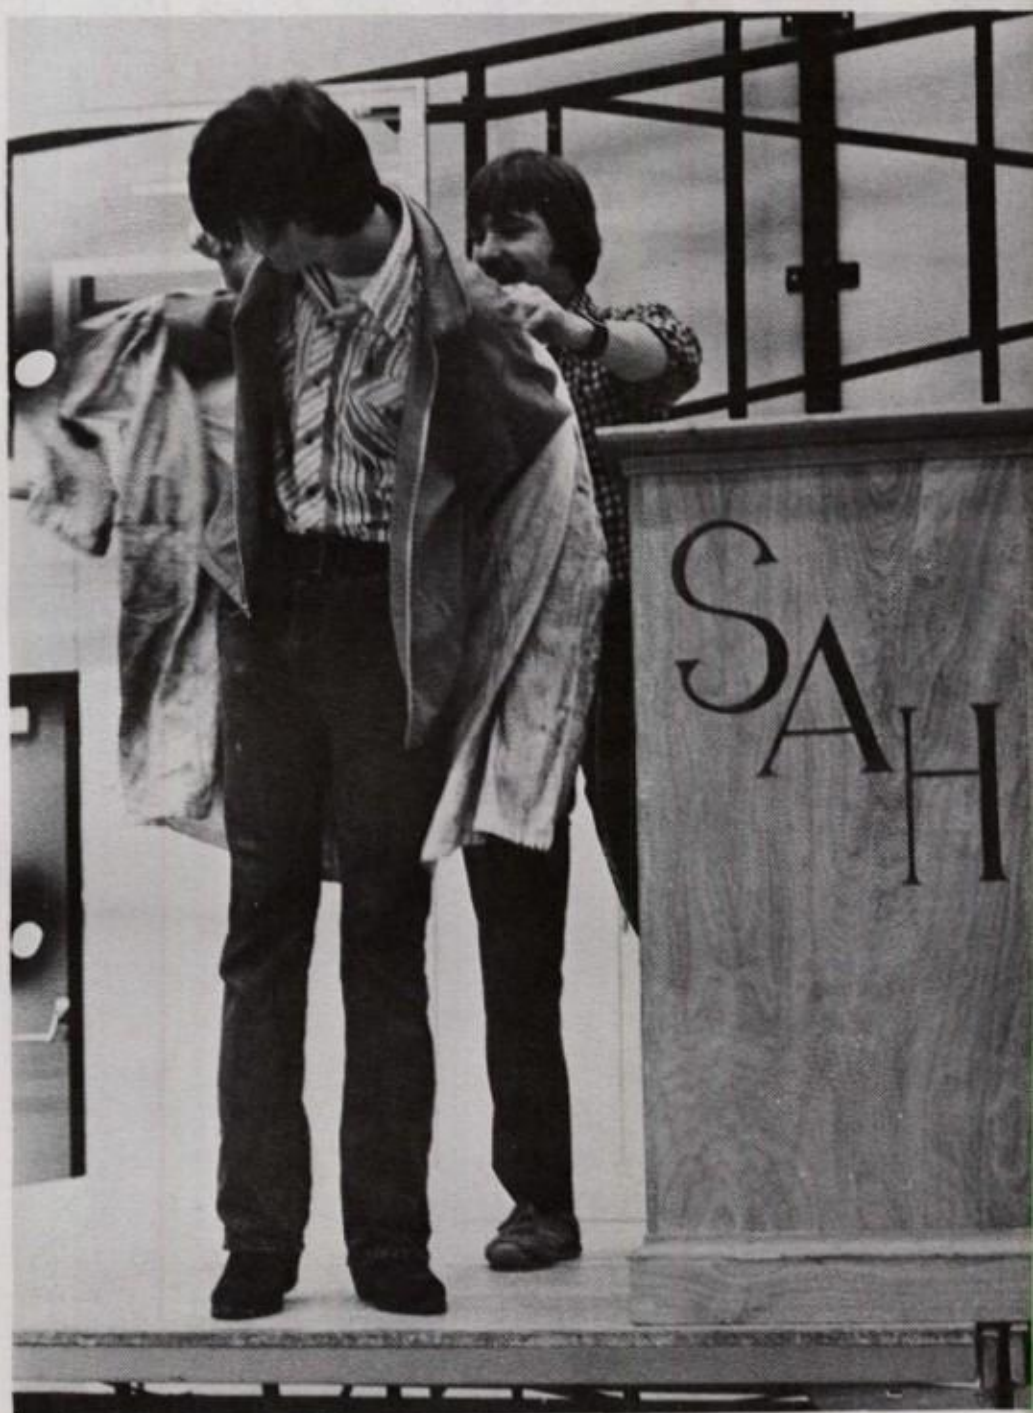

Be What You Want To Be

What is so different about the graduation of the class of nineteen hundred and seventy-seven? Well, to make sure that there was enough room for the graduates, parents and relatives, each senior received six tickets. As Senior Class President Cheri Richardson put it, "It was needed for a long time. I hope that everyone got the tickets they needed through the exchange program."

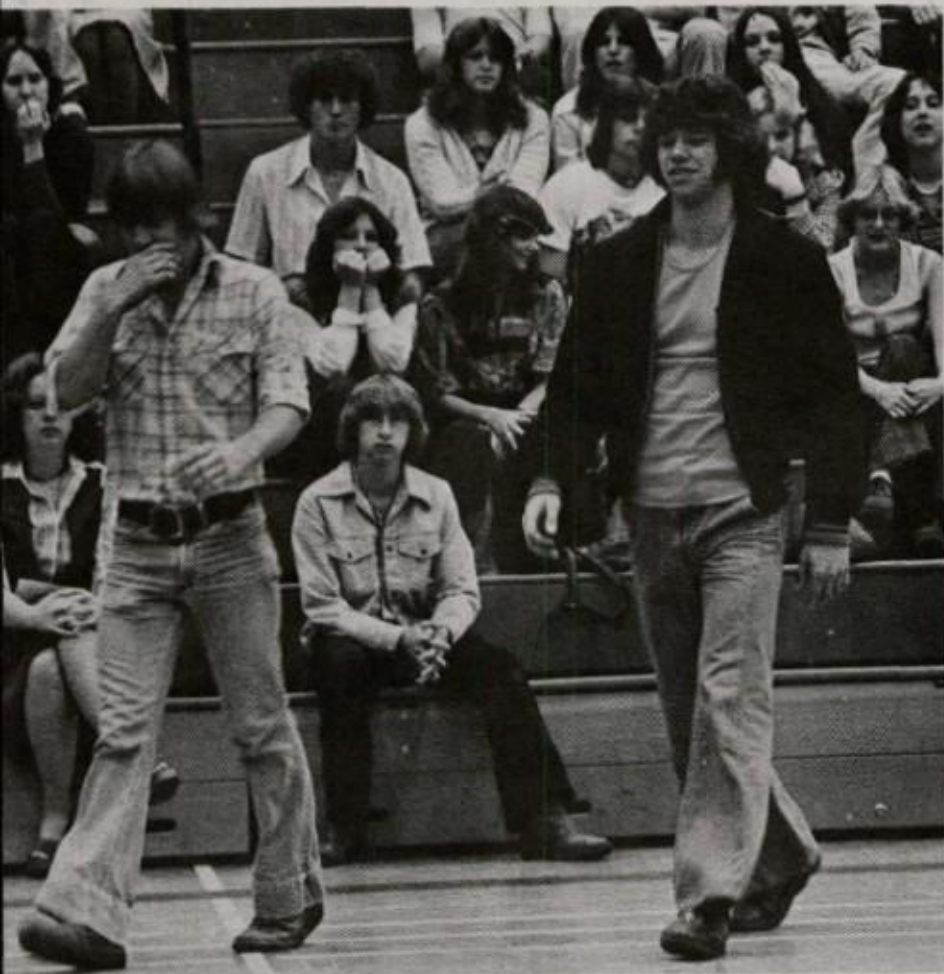

The Senior voted Most Talented presented the song "The Impossible Dream," with Gary Cook singing and Sandi Swartzendruber playing the piano. Mark Leedom played a trombone solo.

Salutatorian Teri Robertson ended her speech with the wish that the seniors "Would Stay Forever Young," from Bob Dylan's song. Other speakers were Valedictorian Gary Stroud, Principal Eldon Durham, and Superintendent Dr. Marv Evans, who presided over his last graduation in this district.

The presentation of diplomas went smoothly except for the "Way to be Casper" and "Go for it D.J." and of course the occasional "Alrights" and "Horrays" from the audience. With the changing of the tassles all of the seniors threw rice into the air to officially end the year.

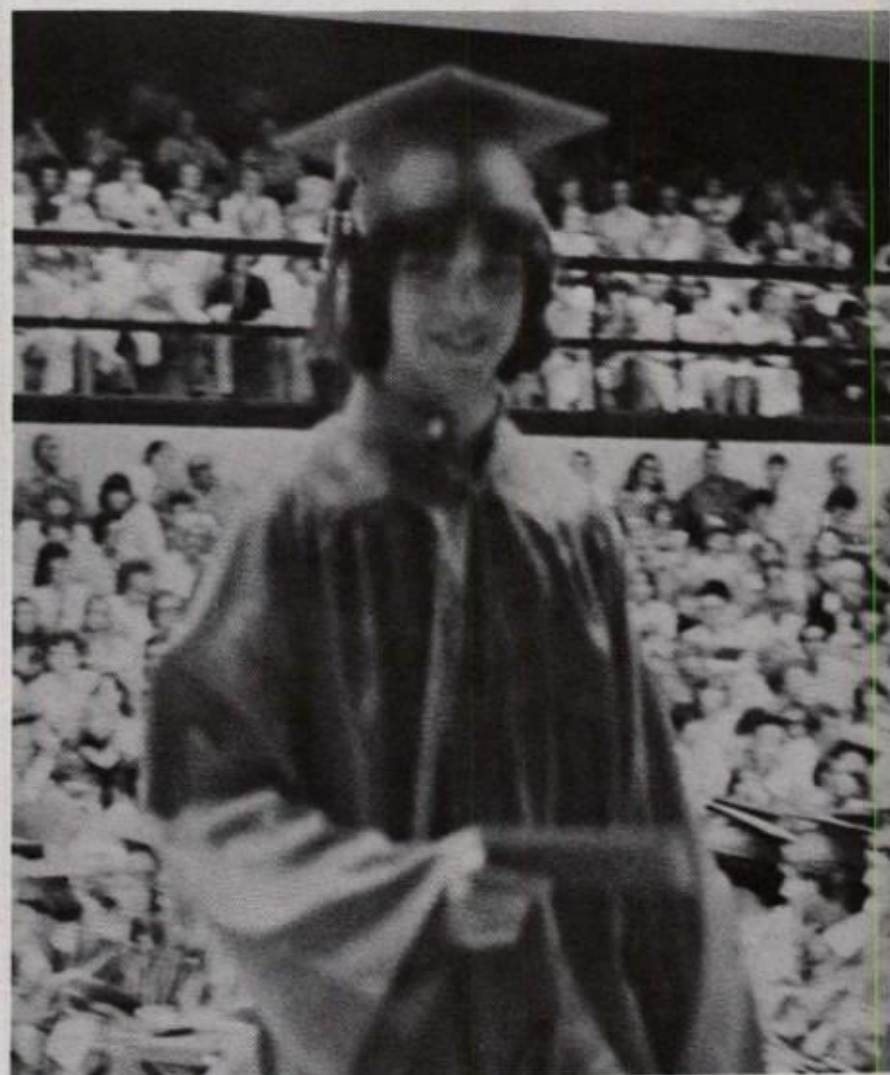

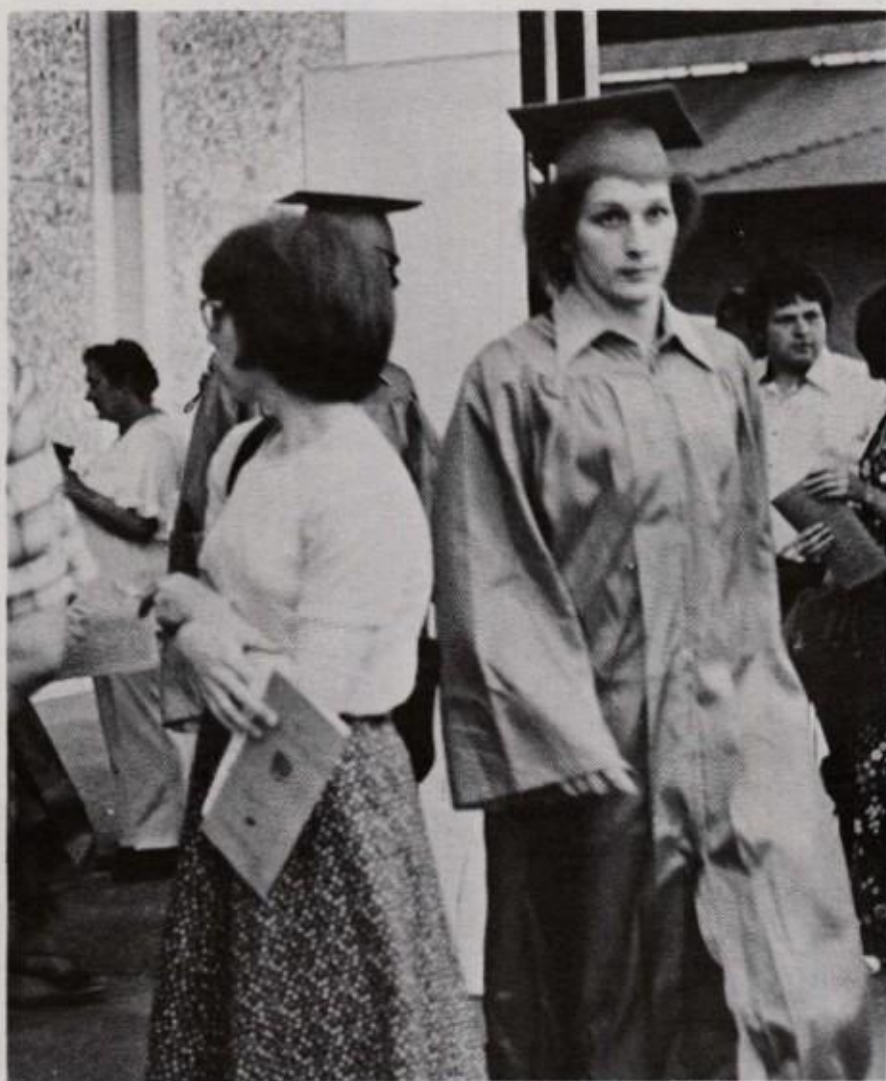

Do What You Want To Do

OPPOSITE PAGE CLOCKWISE: Auto shop teacher Steve Geddes helps Gary Struckmeir into his "new" shopcoat which he received along with the Auto Shop award. Jan Folmsbee walks to the podium during graduation practice while Rosalie Fordham and Dean Foster wait in line for their turn. Debi Carpenter, Shelly Carter, Penny Cartwright, Tammy Casper, Elise Champagne, Mike Christensen, Linda Christie, and Mary Cook all stand in line during the practice as Mr. Sabatka, Senior Class Advisor Linda McKenzie, Principal Durham, and Sophomore Andy Reid watch. THIS PAGE CLOCKWISE: Jose Linares and friends gaze into the fire during the nonschool Senior Skip Day. Mr. Durham gives Harry Bose his Oregon State Scholarship Award. Randy Shadley tells Cheri Richardson how he wants his name read during graduation. Ron Quigley and Al Stryker walk up to receive their Metal Shop Awards.

Go Where You Want To Go... Live!

WHAT GRADUATION MEANS TO ME

"Your life is kind of like a book, and Graduation is just the ending of one chapter and the beginning of another one."

—Jeff Simpson

"No more school, and the thought of getting out on my own and leaving town."

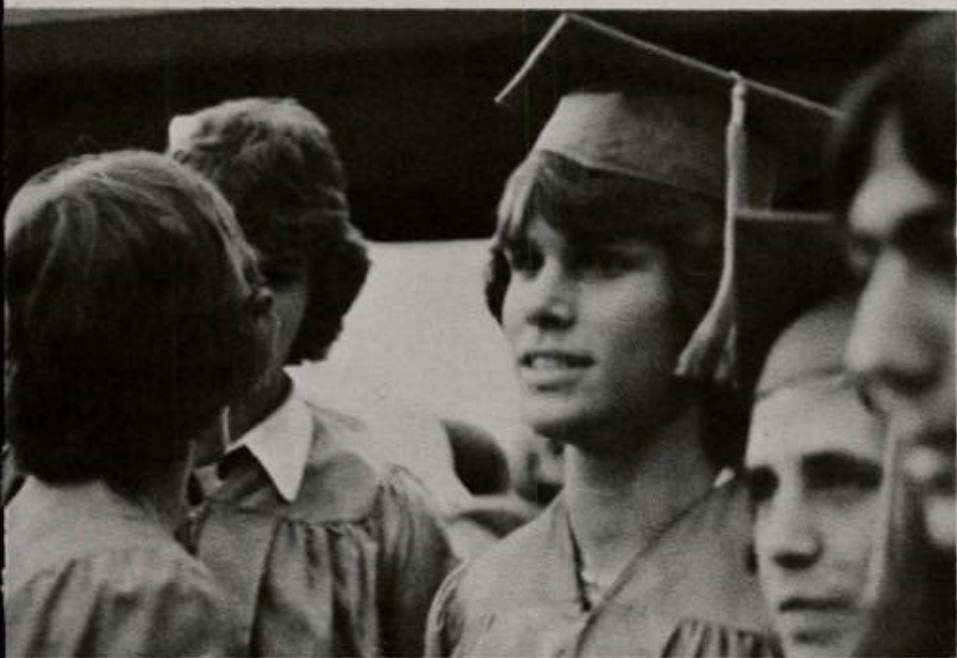

—Paula M. Norris

"Finishing my education, so I can get a better job."

—Pete Desamais

"Hoping I get a 'D' in Algebra II, so I can graduate this year!"

—Dean Kirkpatrick

Turn me around-
 Lead me into a fantasy
 Turn my world-
 Spinning faster
 Turn to a blur-
 and we're gone together
 Forever.

Express Themselves

NEVER REACHING THE END

The world keeps on turning,
The skies keep on burning,
 never reaching the end.
People keep on living and friends keep on giving,
 never reaching the end.
Life keeps on going and the wind keeps on blowing,
 never reaching the end.
People will grow and
people will go,
 never reaching the end.

Senior Richard Bellan

THOUGHTS ON THE YEAR

"I really liked my senior year.
It made me realize a few things about myself and others and get to know my classmates better.
Everyone seemed to have gotten closer to each other by knowing
THIS IS IT!"

Senior Linda Christie

Enjoy yourself as much as you can today . . .

. . . Because today will never come again.

heard by Junior Sue Hillyer

"This was my first year at South Albany. I had lots of fun. The school and the people in it are the best. I'm really looking forward to my next two years."

Sophomore Patrice Nydigger

I walk the dusty halls where I once attended school. Faces
return with each room.
Someone remembered yet forgotten as I walk and bar each door behind me.

Michelle,
Me, you + Paula are going to make a mess
out of Southern Belle!
We will show them
some (weird) fun! ha!
Well good luck in 8.B.
and with everything
else.
Love,
Brenda

Michelle,
Well, where do I start?
You're super weird at times but you're still pretty nice. I hope you have fun as a big 5B.
Stay sweet and not so loud. Good luck always.

Love
Tammy.
